NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

1815 UNION AVE.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. 37404

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Seventh Annual NCCAA Division II Women's Basketball Tournament! This is not just a three-day event but is the culmination of months of extra hard work by many people. Special thanks to Kentucky Christian College for hosting and organizing the tournament.

On behalf of the Basketball Committee, special congratulations to the eight teams and their coaches who are participating this week. Best of success as you strive for the National Championship.

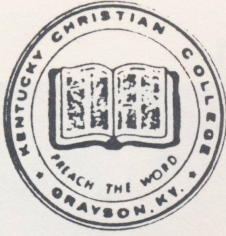

I am sure that you will enjoy these days of outstanding basketball competition and Christian fellowship. Get to know some of these fine young ladies and their coaches and perhaps you will discover for yourself what makes them and the NCCAA different. Our tournament is unique!

"That in all things, He might have the preeminence." Col. 1:18

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

March 2, 1989

Dear Tournament Guests:

I am pleased to welcome you to Kentucky Christian College! We are honored to have you on campus as our special guests.

The NCCAA National Women's Basketball Tournament is the major athletic event on our campus this year and we want your visit with us to be as enjoyable and memorable as possible.

In the end, only one team can go home with the national title, but all who give 100% effort can go home champions. The Apostle Paul once said, "Run in such a way as to win the prize." Compete like a champion! Whether you are on the court or in the stands make your very best effort to be a winner.

Have a good time while you're here, and if you need information or assistance we'll be glad to help.

With best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Keith P. Keeran, Ph.D.
President

Commitment, which is the team word for this Ladies' Varsity Basketball team, symbolizes what they are striving for in each practice and game—commitment to their Savior, their school, and their sport. They have shown their commitment by beating some very tough competition and by remaining faithful to their cause even after hard defeats. The Lady Defenders of Baptist Bible College in Clarks Summit, PA, have had a very rewarding season. What Coach Sherrie Holloway sees as a "total team effort" has kept the Lady Defenders at the top and undefeated in their conference. Also, this effort has allowed them to lead the NCCAA all season in several categories.

This year's Lady Deacons saw some vast changes in personnel, both players and coach. Kelly Kappen comes to the Lady Deacons with an enormous amount of playing and coaching experience. Coach Kappen has turned the basketball program into a winning program in one year. Top returner is Senior Kris Dodson, who is currently dominating the boards for the Lady Deacons and leading the team in scoring. Also returning to the squad after a year off is Senior Jenny Fish, who along with Kris dominates on the boards. Key newcomers include point guard Jody Pierce who leads the Lady Deacons on the floor with her excellent ballhandling and passing skills; another key newcomer is Freshman Donna Allen who leads the team with her accurate shooting skills, and her ability to pass the ball inside.

Philadelphia College of the Bible is a Bible and Professional college offering over 43 programs, many of which lead to double degrees and certification in various service areas (social work, teaching, music, etc.). Located on a 115-acre campus northeast of Philadelphia in beautiful Bucks County, the college currently has over 600 full-time students preparing to serve the Lord worldwide. Women's basketball is an enjoyable and competitive activity at PCB. The women compete in the PAIAW (Philadelphia Area Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) Conference and also in the NACC (North Atlantic Christian Conference). The NACC is comprised of NCCAA II teams. The 1988-89 season record going into playoffs was 16-6 overall. The Crimson Eagles are a talented, young team looking forward to growth together in women's competition.

The 1988-89 basketball season started with high expectations of Toccoa Falls being at the National Tournament, one of the eight best teams in our nation, competing for the national title. Five second year players led by All-American Laura Sligh would return to our team to join five new talented freshmen. The combination would give Toccoa Falls its tallest team and perhaps its finest team ever! However, no one could foresee the future and the various troubles that would try to tear this team apart. By Christmas three of the freshmen had to leave the team for various reasons; then in January a starter would leave school and in February another starter would break a finger. A third straight District Championship and a fourth straight trip to the National tournament now seemed doubtful. It would have been very easy to say let's wait and regroup next season, but we have a theme song that sums this team up very well: "I'm givin up, givin up, never gonna give up again!"
