For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ.

president d. v. hurst

What can you say about the President of your college? That he's a great and wonderful man? Possibly that he's a hard worker and dedicated? Of course, but practically any college could say that. But here at Northwest we have a unique man. He is more than just the stereo-type President. He is an inspiration and encouragement. A man to be respected. A fellow member of the body of Christ. We appreciate you, President Hurst. We love you, and thanks again for another great year.

A.S.B. officer. What prestige! Or, is it? Getting up for a 6:30 A.M. meeting after working until 2 on that Philippians assignment, or an endless number of copies of the last meeting's minutes to run off five minutes before the office closes. That's prestige? What exactly is life like as an A.S.B. officer? Compromise, fun, loyalty, frustration, blessings, humility, lack of sleep and time, and exaltation. A.S.B. officers are human, just like everyone else at Northwest. They are people to be shared and loved. People to be proud of. And we are. Thank you, for all your work and dedication.

w.o.m. executive council

World Outreach Ministries (WOM) is the outreach organization at Northwest. It is administrated by the executive council (shown on these pages) and its services are divided among seven Ministry Interest Groups or MIG's. The Campus MIG is in charge of such activities as prayer cells in the dorm and special campus ministries. The students who selected their branch of ministry in the Children and Youth MIG minister to children in area Sunday Schools and Children's churches. Evengelism MIG members went out in small personal evangelism groups to share in specialized community areas (Sea-Tac Airport, the University of Washington). Those who wished to minister in music had the MIG option of Gospel Team MIG. The Missions MIG is built around major missions projects, such as Operation Turkey, Summer Internship and the International Food Fair. In the Community Service MIG, students were afforded opportunity to tutor and to visit shut-ins at the Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle. The servicemens' MIG major outreach is to minister at the Fort Lewis Coffee House. The activities of these MIG divisions are portrayed in the pages following.

ron prinzing fall guest

During the week of September 30 through October 4, Northwest College students were challenged to know God better by the Rev. Ron Prinzing of Whittier, California. A set devotional time to know God in a personal way was emphasized by the speaker. Through Biblical examples, the students were also taught to let God work through their own individual personalities. The results of the week were a better outlook on the personality of God, our Father and a striving to know Him better throughout the quarter.

Rev. Cho Yongii of Seoul, South Korea was the featured speaker during the week of January 20-24, 1975. The emphasis for the week was missionary in that Rev. Cho spoke of different examples from his 25,000 member church. Faith was the major thrust of the messages, filled with many hints on how to use what we have. Another highlight was the Missions Parade, in which students and faculty display foreign clothing. This year's parade is believed to have been the largest ever. Northwest was truly fortunate to have such a famous and outstanding speaker for the Winter Emphasis Week.

reaching arms

Reaching Arms is the section devoted to the creative efforts of Northwest students. Prose, poems or simple thoughts of a person while undergoing the strain of growing up and finding out who they are and exactly what they can offer Christ in word and action. Now presenting . . . REACHING ARMS!

I AM THE SPIRIT OF MAN.

I EXIST NOT IN THE AIRLESS VACUUM OF TIME,
BUT I LIVE AND THRIVE IN THE MEADOWS OF THE MIND AND HEART.

I AM MAN'S EMOTIONS.
I SPEAK HIS WORDS IN ANGER OR IN LOVE.
I SHOCK HIM WITH BOLD PENCILED WORDS IN PUBLIC BATHROOMS, I CRY TO HIM ASKING FOR PEACE FROM A GHETTO WALL.

YOU CANNOT SEE ME.
BUT I CAN SEE YOU.
I AM ALWAYS THERE.
I SHOUT WITH YOU IN YOUR TRIUMPHS,
I WEEP WITH YOU IN DEFEAT.
I BECOME ANGRY WHEN YOU HURT ONE ANOTHER.
I SMILE WHEN HELP IS OFFERED TO ONE IN NEED.

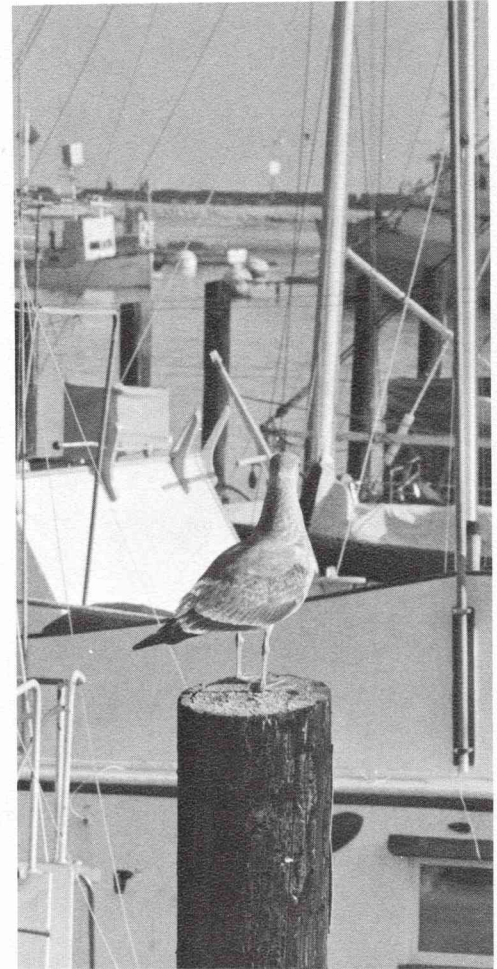

YOU CAN HEAR MY VOICE,
JUST AS I CAN HEAR YOUR THOUGHTS.
YOU CAN HEAR ME IN THE LONELY CRY FROM TIME'S SQUARE.
YOU CAN HEAR ME IN THE WHISPER OF A FRIEND.
YOU CAN HEAR ME IN THE SHARPNESS OF AN ORDER.
YOU CAN HEAR MY VOICE SHOUTING FROM THE DESERT,
"PREPARE TO MEET YOUR GOD!"

I WALK THE LONELY COUNTRY ROADS WITH THE HITCH-HIKER.
I RIDE IN THE LIMOSINE OF A POLITICIAN.
I VISIT THE ENGINEER ON A WEST BOUND FREIGHT TRAIN.
I AM THE COMPANION OF THE HOBO SHIVERING AROUND A CAMPFIRE.

I AM THE INTIMATE BOND THAT UNITES
EAST WITH WEST, NORTH WITH SOUTH
RED WITH YELLOW, BLACK WITH WHITE.
I AM THE CLASP OF FRIENDSHIP.

I HAVE STOOD THE REST OF TIME.
I BATTLE HATRED EVERY DAY WITH LOVE.
I DETEST BIGOTRY.
I HELP THE SOUL IN DISPAIR WITH A LOVING ARM.
I COMFORT THE LONELY AND FEARFUL, WITH A SUNNY SMILE.

The mist is falling through the trees. I seek not to escape the mist, but welcome it's refreshing coolness.

I need the sanctity of these moments to collect my thoughts and dream my dreams. I don't wish to avoid reality, but to establish my hopes so reality will be less painful to face.

Lives brush mine every day not realizing their simple smile may be pulling me on, shaping me, drawing me to others, causing me to desire understanding of them and their unique and wonderful natures.

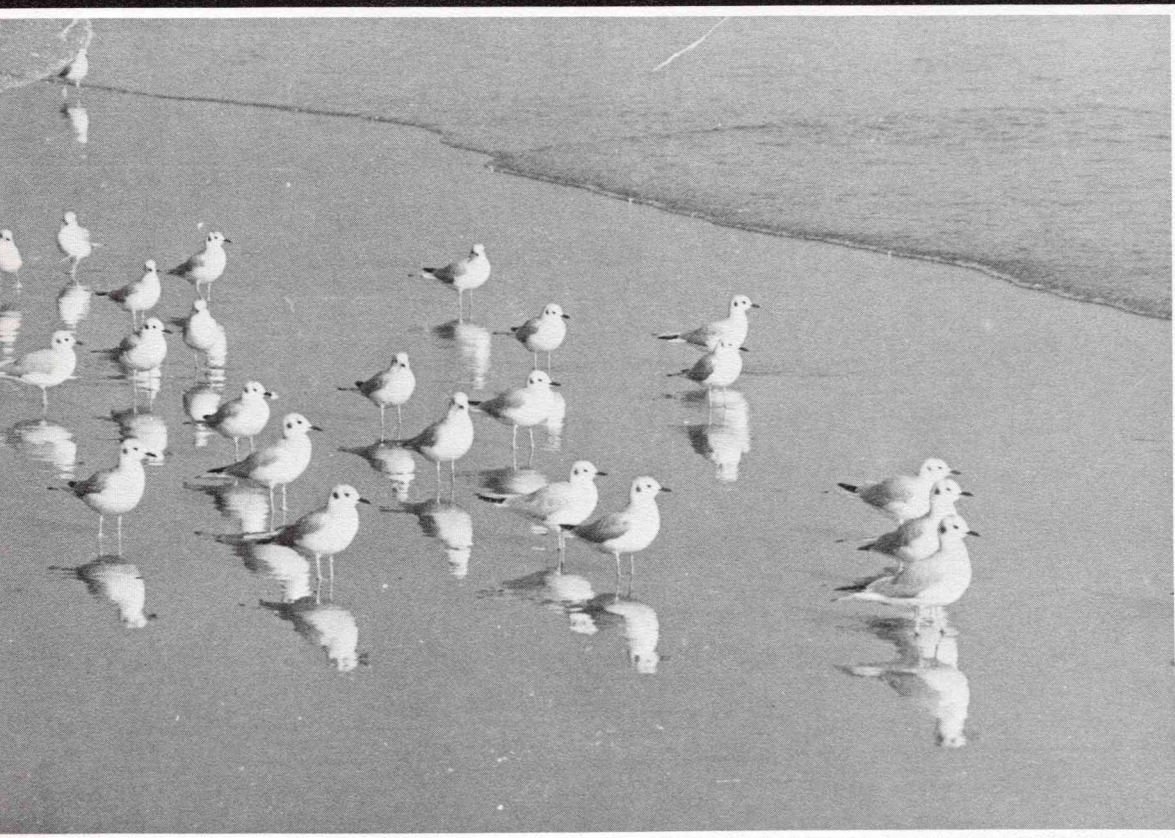

Sally Sonju

The Sun slivered through my window warming odd points of my body. Flinging beams of lateness in my eyes.

I wandered aimlessly in a cloud of slumber sifting my dreams to reality. Half-blown thoughts jolt the memory of my mind.

Turning, I find the smile that has awakened me.

IT WAS NIGHT AND HAD JUST RAINED
I ROUNDED A CORNER.
A GENTLE BREEZE GREETED ME,
FRESH AND CLEAN ON MY FACE.
IT WAS GOOD TO WALK ON SUCH A NIGHT.

BUT THEN THE DARKNESS CLOSED IN;
FEAR TOOK HOLD.
FEAR AS ONLY ONE, WHO IS WALKING,
ALONE AND AT NIGHT, CAN KNOW.
IT MADE ME SHIVER AND PULL MY COAT ABOUT.

THEN ONCE AGAIN I HEARD THE RUSTLING WIND, FELT ITS GENTLE TOUCH.
I TOOK COMFORT IN IT.
IT BLEW AWAY THE FEAR.
IT WAS GOOD TO WALK ON SUCH A NIGHT.

THEN GUILT OVERCOMES ME
AND I TRY TO REACH OUT.
IN RETURN MY HANDS REMAIN EMPTY.

NEW LIFE

Sometimes does the road you're traveling,
Seem hopeless without end?
Does no one understand you,
Though they've tried again and again?

This use to be my story,
'Til the day that I found out,
That Jesus loves and cares for me
And would take my strife and doubt.

They told me that He died for me
To save me from my sin.
That he shed His blood upon that cross,
That I be born again.

They said that He would help me,
And wanted to be mine.
They said that He would help me,
For now and for all time.

So when I heard this story,
I prayed a simple prayer.
And then I knew that He'd come in
For I could feel Him there.

He gave me something wonderful,
That something found through Him.
He gave me all the peace and love
More precious than a gem.

And though sometimes the road seems rough
And just too much to bear,
I know that I can count on Him
For He is always there.

So if right now it seems to you
There's nothing to live for,
Then I suggest you ask Him in;
Just open up the door.

I know He'll do the same for you
That He has done for me.
He'll give you life that can't be bought,
And He will set you free.

Sue Cochran

A Goal In Life

If I could do one thing for mankind
Before my allotted time is up here,

of the past and bright hopes
for the future,

I believe you are becoming beautiful

I am you.

Traffic Cop

I used to sit on the curb of lazy street, watching all the cars full of empty people go aimlessly by.

One day a man came walking by and he sat down beside me. His eyes blazed with an energy and vibrancy that broke down all the lazy walls of my heart. I realized that I needed help.

He didn't criticize me or yell at me.
All he did was spoke these words
"Get involved".
Now I'm a traffic cop.

flappers, fords, and

Northwest College went back to the days of the "Roaring Twenties" on November 16th when the Harvest time Social, themed "Flappers, Ford, and Flights of Fantasy" made its annual appearance. The evening included the "faceful" donations of faculty members when they allowed for students to let their inhibitions AND pudding cups fly. (Thank you Dr. Dan, Dean Clark, Coach Kinney, Coach Johnson, Mr. Randolph, Mr. G., and Jan Rice!!) Other highlights were the crowning of Miss N.C. 1929, the operatic voice of Mother Hubbard, (Ken Aho), a dress fitting by W.C. Fields, (Greg Hickman), Rhoda's Sodas, Jude's Doggie Hots, the fabulous "Living Water" from Vashon Island, and the hilarity of the 600 floor guys crashing through the stage after singing, "I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Baby". The success of Harvest time was attributed to this year's fantastic, hard-working Sophomore class. Three cheers.

In 1974 Northwest College and Coach Helmut Eisert fielded Northwest's first soccer team. Multnomah School of the Bible, the eventual champions, and Concordia College both fielded veteran teams while Northwest Christian College fielded a rookie team in the four team struggle. The team won its first two games at home, including an upset victory over pre-season favorite Concordia. The team then took a weekend trip to Portland, playing three games in less than two days, losing two and winning one, sending the two into overtime. The team then returned to Kirkland and two weeks later lost to Multnomah before a large crowd. The 3-3 record gave the team third place in the conference. At the end of the season John Engelson was elected Most Valuable Player, Ron Dugone was elected Most Inspirational, and Tim Barrans was elected Most Improved.

A FAMILY AFFAIR...

Graduation is congratulations, togetherness, separation, tears of joy, and shudders of apprehension—the end and the beginning.

Those of us who serve through the ministries of our church headquarters feel all these emotions keenly. For you are our children and our future. We share the concern of fond parents when their children “leave the nest”—the concern that we all keep in touch.

Talk to us. We listen.

Why Bank
At One Of Our
16 Locations?

We're open-minded.

At Bank of the West, most of our locations offer customer hours. Open-till-six-every-weekday hours. Which is a long, long way from bankers' hours.

Hours designed to suit our customers. That's a pretty good reason to do all your banking with Bank of the West.

For we, being three are one bread, and one body.
for we are all partakers of that One Bread. 1Corinthians
10:17 (paraphrased)

For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ.

1 Corinthians 12/12
