

THE NORTHWEST UNIVERSITY MUSIC DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

A Free Workshop and Master Class in

THE Rhythm Section AND Worship

Tuesday, February 26th
8:00 am – 12:30 pm

Butterfield Chapel
Northwest University
5520 108th Ave. NE,
Kirkland, WA

Featuring

JON LUGO

Jon is currently the Pastor of Creative Arts at Bethel Church in San Jose, Calif., and has been a first-call studio keyboard player in the Bay area, Nashville and Indianapolis. Jon has worked as an arranger and producer, and has over 50 publications to his credit. He was nominated for a Dove award and worked with Natalie Grant, Andrae Crouch and Ray Boltz. Jon's axiom of ministry is to "facilitate corporate worship by allowing the congregation to participate in music that is sensitively chosen, intelligently programmed and well presented".

JIMMIE ADAMS

Jimmie was a national finalist in Guitar Center's Drum Off – one of only six chosen out of hundreds of competitors. Jimmie is the head instructor of the Oakland Military Institute Drumline, and is the drummer for the group Irvington, who recently released their new CD entitled Circles. He is an exceptional musician with years of experience as an instructor, clinician, recording artist and performer.

Workshop Schedule

8:00 – 9:15 am	Understanding the Rhythm Section
9:30 – 10:45 am	Piano in Contemporary Worship
10:45 – 12:30 pm	Grooves, Patterns and Substitutions
1:30 – 3:00 pm	Jimmie Adams Master Class in Drumming
1:30 – 3:00 pm	Jon Lugo Master Class in Piano

This workshop and master class is being freely offered to the local church community, sponsored by the Music Department of Northwest University

Please RSVP to music@northwestu.edu or call 425.889.5255