Thank you so much for allowing the "Kings Choralons" any myself the privilege of being in your fine assembly last Sunday. Doc Swaffield, the choir members, and myself are most grateful for your people's response to our message in song. It was one of the most exciting services yet this year. Please express to your congregation and to the people who were responsible for making the arrangements our heart-felt thanks.

I also want to thank you for your generous contribution which helps defray the expenses of the choir and furthers the ministry of Northwest College. We look forward to continued opportunities of sharing with you and we pray God's richest blessing upon your congregation and upon your ministry. It is great to know that we are all workers together for the Kingdom and I appreciate the fine spirit that I sensed in the lives of your people.

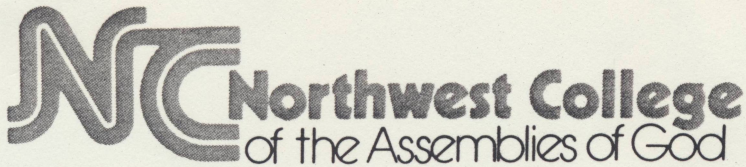

As I expressed to you, I do invite you and your people to visit our campus at any time. This is your school and we want you to feel welcomed. Please let me know when you are in the area. I look forward to having a time of fellowship with you. Thanks again for letting us minister in your church.

Dear Warren:

Choice Greetings in Christ's Name!

I hope this letter finds you fit and hardy and recuperated from your recent flu. I want you to know, Buddy, that you missed a fabulous service when the Choralons were there. It was one of the finest we have had all year. I'm sure Judy told you all about it. I'm very, very impressed with John and I know that he has the stuff that is really going to make your music program take off. I not only observed him during his choir practice, without him being aware that I was watching, but also just his attitude during the service and helping us before, I'm impressed. I continue to share my excitement about what is happening at Spanaway.

I know the choir members and Doc Swaffield are most grateful for your people's response to their message. They deeply appreciated the opportunity to minister to your fine congregation. And also appreciated the fine job that Russ Johnsen, Loyd Johnson, and crew did on those fabulous tacos, they really enjoyed them. Please express to all of those responsible for making all the arrangements, our heart-felt thanks.

Dear Bryan,

I am still excited and grateful for the great service we had in your church. I appreciate you allowing the "Kings Choralons" the opportunity of ministering to your fine congregation on their first night of spring tour. Dr. Swaffield, the choir members, and myself are most grateful for your people's response to their message in song. Please express to your congregation and to the people who were responsible for making the arrangements, our heart-felt thanks. The meal was delicious and Dr. and Mrs. Swaffield, my wife and myself, really appreciated the accomodations at the Holiday Inn.

I also want to thank you for your generous contribution which helps defray the expenses of the choir and furthers the ministry of Northwest College. We look forward to continued opportunities of sharing with you and we pray God's richest blessing upon your congregation and upon your ministry. It is great to know that we are all workers together for the Kingdom and I appreciate the fine spirit that I sensed in the lives of your people.

I do invite you and your people to visit our campus at any time. This is your school and we want you to feel welcomed. Please let me know when you are in the area. I look forward to having a time of fellowship with you. Thanks again for letting us minister in your church.

Dear Walt,

I am still excited and grateful for the great service that we had in your church. I appreciate you allowing the "Kings Choralons" the opportunity of ministering to your fine congregation even though you were not present for our service. Dr. Swaffield, the choir members, and myself are most grateful for your people's response to their message in song. I really believe that the Lord did some tremendous things through our young people's ministry. Please express to your congregation and to the people who were responsible for making the arrangements, our heart-felt thanks. We are especially grateful for the fine motel accomodations that Doc and his wife, and Gail and I enjoyed at the Ridpath. It was very refreshing for us.

I also want to thank you for your generous contribution which helps defray the expenses of the choir and furthers in the ministry of Northwest College. We look forward to continued opportunities of sharing with you and we pray God's richest blessing upon your congregation and upon your ministry. Dear Dennis,

I am still excited and grateful for the great service we had in your church. I appreciate you allowing the "Kings Choralons" the opportunity of ministering to your fine congregation. Dr. Swaffield, the choir members, and myself are most grateful for your people's response to their message in song. Please express to your congregation and to the people who were responsible for making the arrangements, our heart-felt thanks. I want you to know Dennis that the chorus that you sang, "Thou Art Worthy Great Jehovah" has really caught fire and we sang that in many of our services and I've been singing it in our chapel services here. Thank you for that. Our kids and myself really appreciated the contact that you made at the health club, it was great fun and my arms are still sore. We enjoyed it very much. Thanks too for allowing Gail and I the opportunity to stay in your home and have a chance to get to know you better. We are talking about a snow-mobile trip and we'll be in touch.

I also want to thank you for your generous contribution which helps defray the expenses of the choir and furthers the ministry of Northwest College. Dear Bob,

I am preparing the 1983 "Kings Choralons" choir tour itinerary. You may recall that the "Kings Choralons" is a group of approximately 35 young people ministering in song. Their ministry has been widely accepted throughout the Northwest and usually their itinerary is completed by the end of August.

I would like to offer you the "Kings Choralons" for Sunday a.m. on March 20th. This date is during their 10 day Spring tour into Montana. For convenience in replying, a card is enclosed. Please indicate the service time on the card.

I trust that this summer is proving to be a time of blessing for you and your church.

I await your reply.
