Be all that you can be! Become a Soldier – in fact, become an Officer in the U.S. Army through Northwest College's cooperative program with UW's Reserve Officer Training Corps. (At Northwest College, you can choose from more than 50 academic programs, including ministry, business, nursing, and education.)

Even more important, you can prepare to be a Soldier of the Cross. You will be challenged and equipped to Carry the Call. With your heart... to develop compassion and character. With your head... to discover the joy of rigorous study. And with your hands... to actively engage the world around you. Find out more. Call 800.669.3781 or visit our Web site, www.nwcollege.edu.

Myles Corrigan
Associate Vice President for Enrollment Services

P.S. Heather Wasmundt, on the front of this card, is a senior from Dallas, Ore. She's a psychology major and is in the ROTC program.
