This year we have awarded
over $9,000,000 in grants, loans, and scholarships to Northwest College students.
And the best way for you to get the most financial aid
next year is to get your FAFSA
in by January 31, 2002.

During this current academic year, we have awarded a total of $9,405,693 in financial aid to the students at Northwest College. We expect next year's amount will be even greater.

But to be eligible to receive any of this money, you must submit your FAFSA – the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. You can be the cutest, smartest, and nicest student in the world, but if we don't have this form, we can't give you a dime.

So this is just a friendly reminder and a little encouragement – SEND IN THE FORM!

And to get the most aid, send it in by January 31, 2002. (By the way, you can complete it online at www.fafsa.ed.gov!)

We would love to see you as a student here next fall!
