IT!

A Psalm of Life

by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream! —
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Find us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act, — act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o'erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

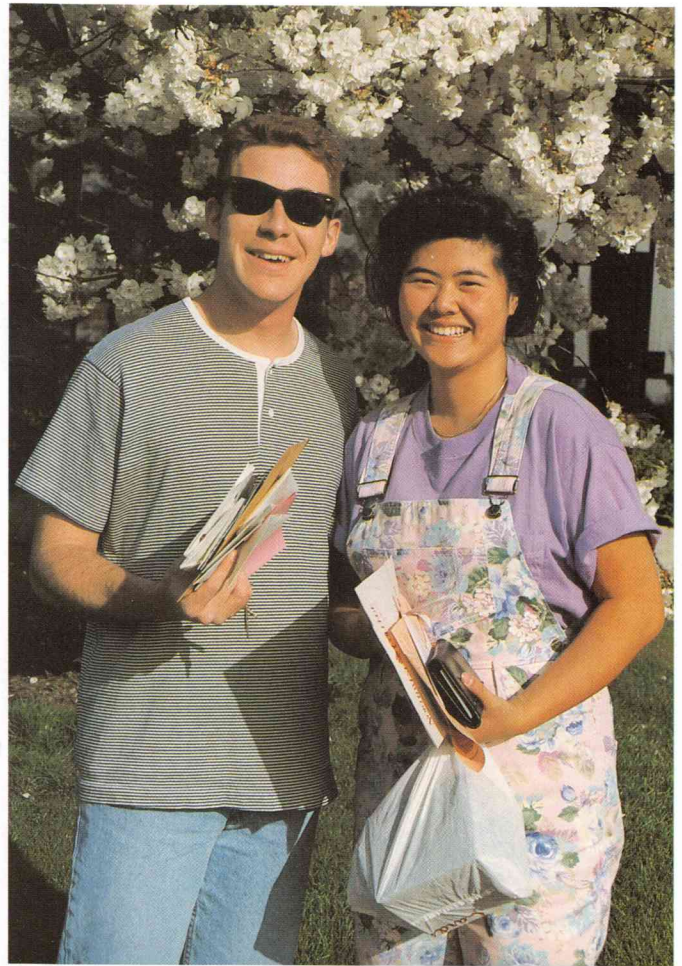

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

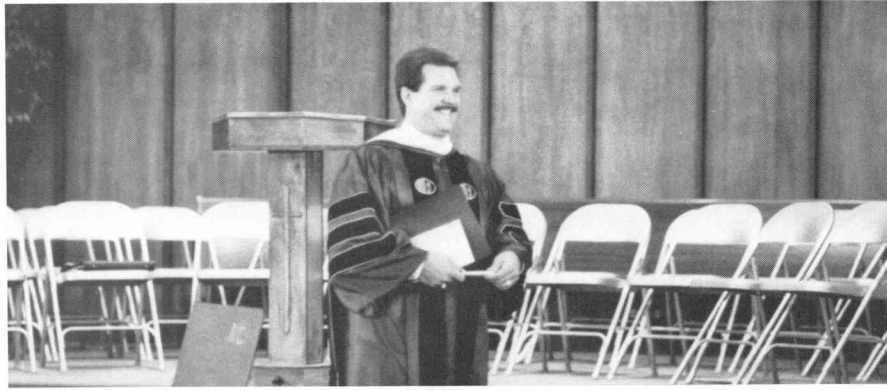

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

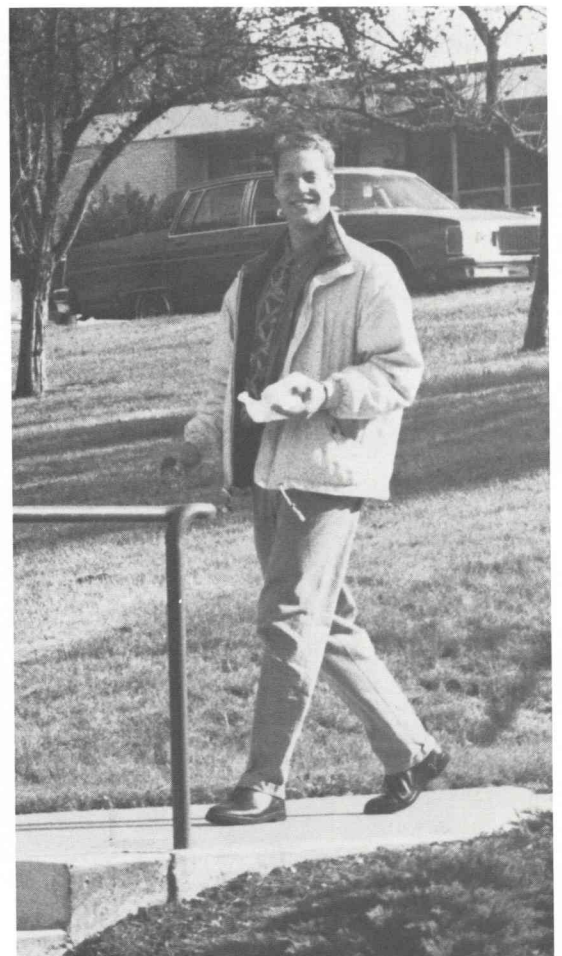

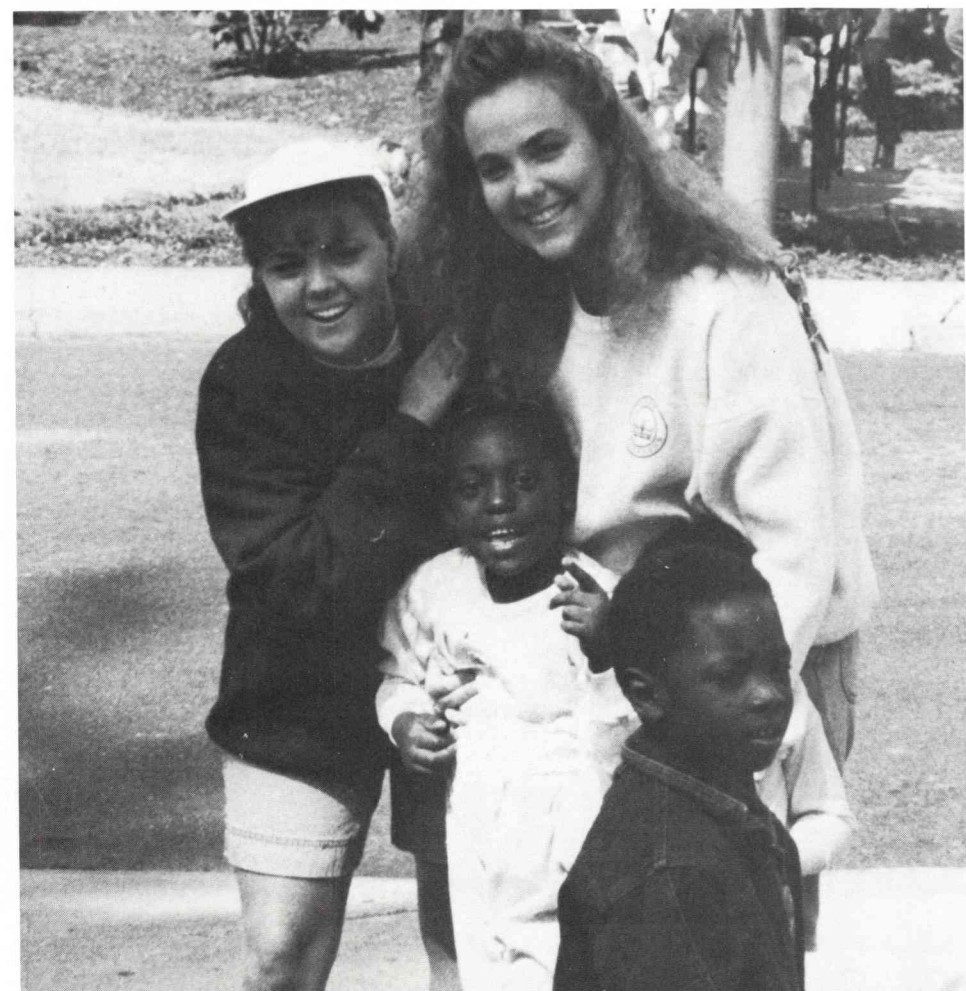

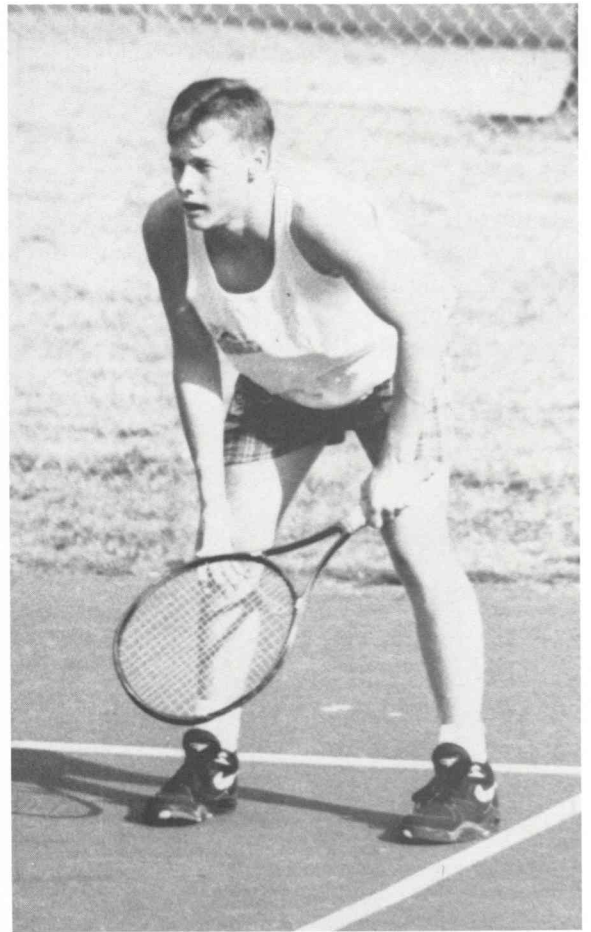

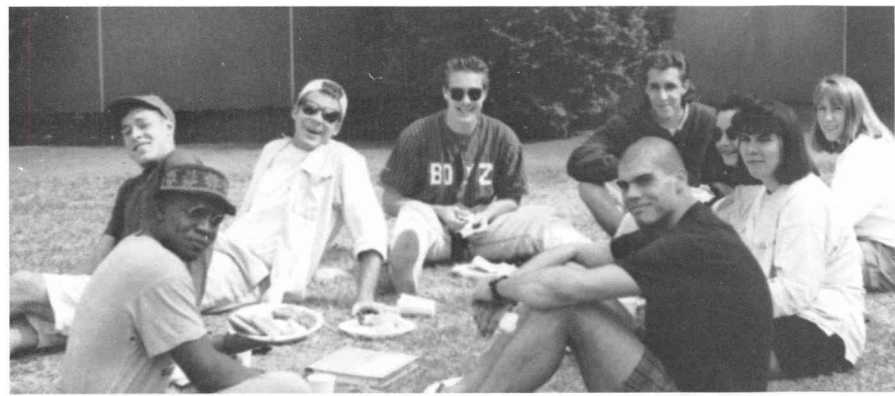

“I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.”

Philippians 1:20 (NIV)

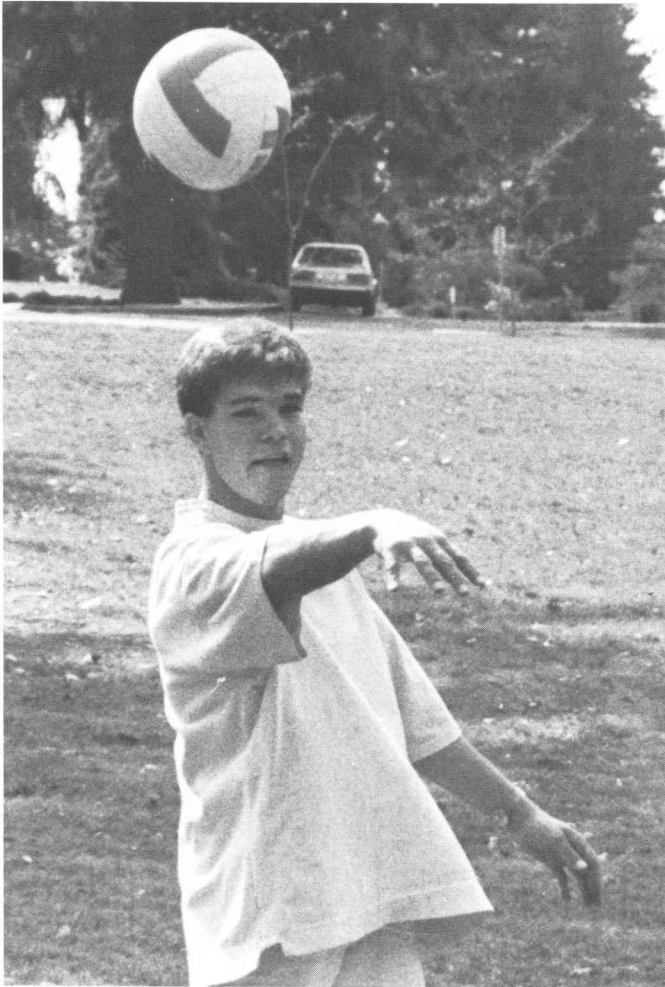

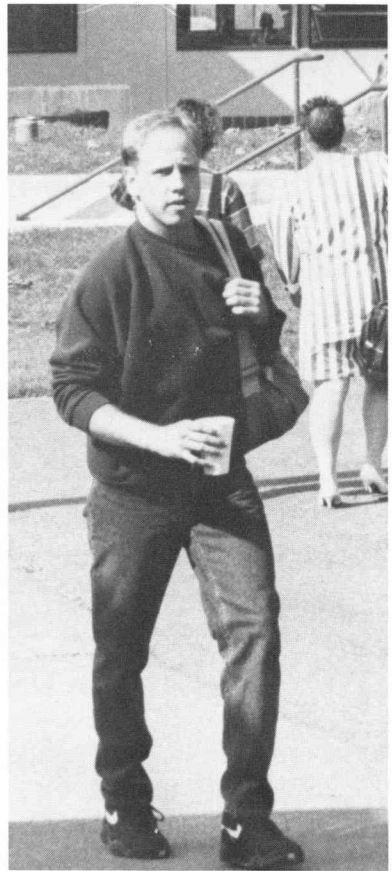

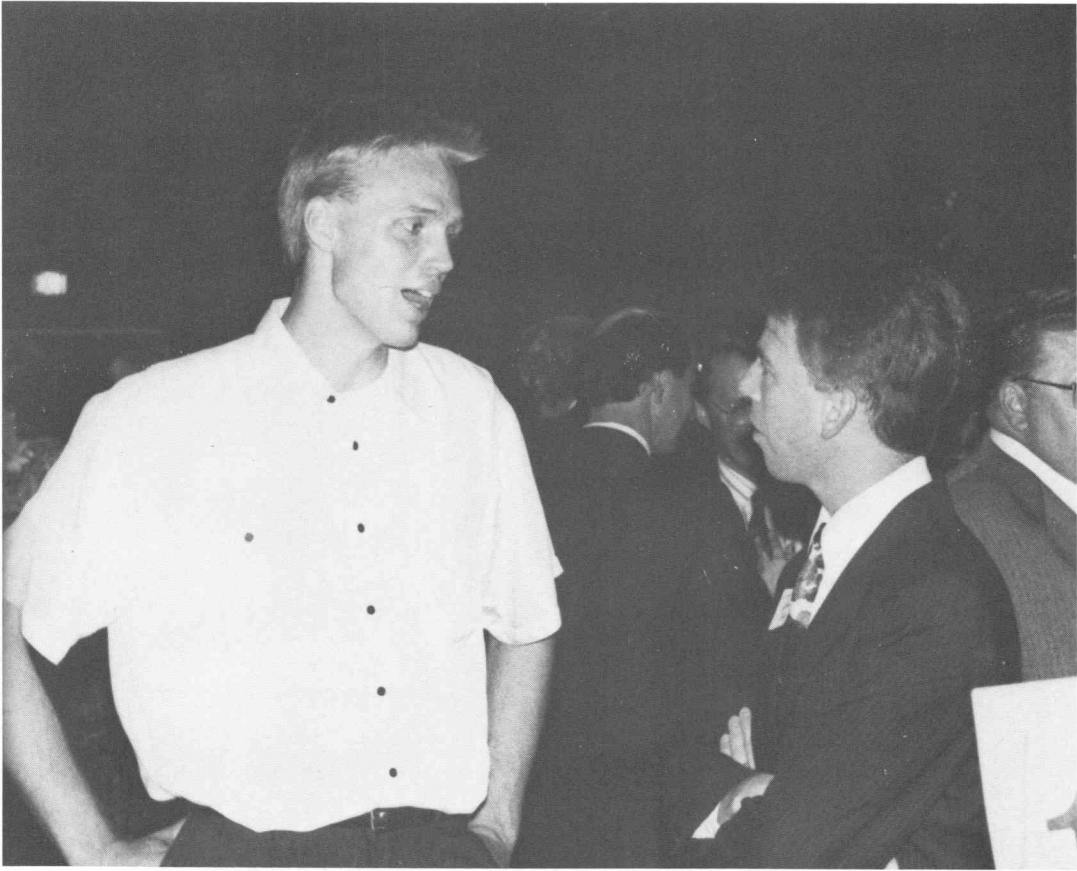

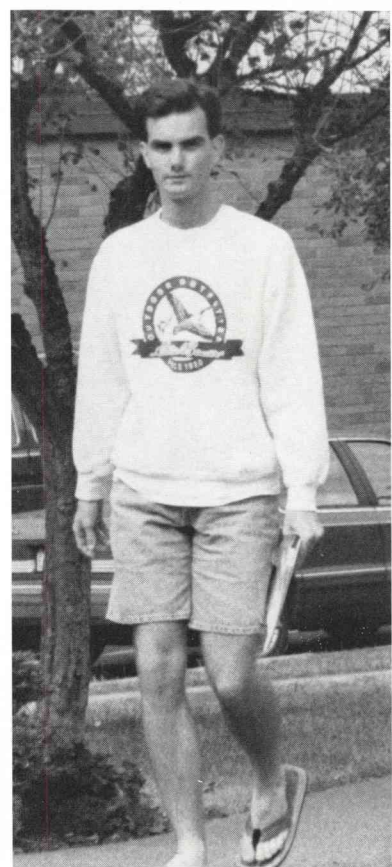

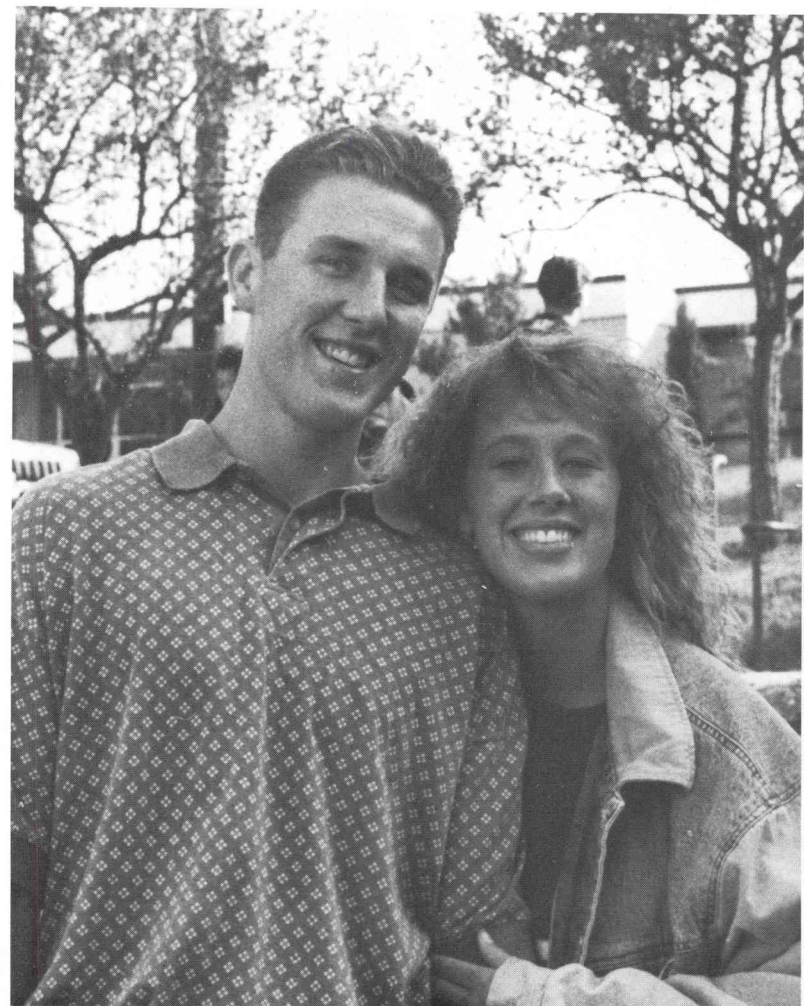

“Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with God’s people who are in need. Practice hospitality.”

Romans 12:10-13 (NIV)

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

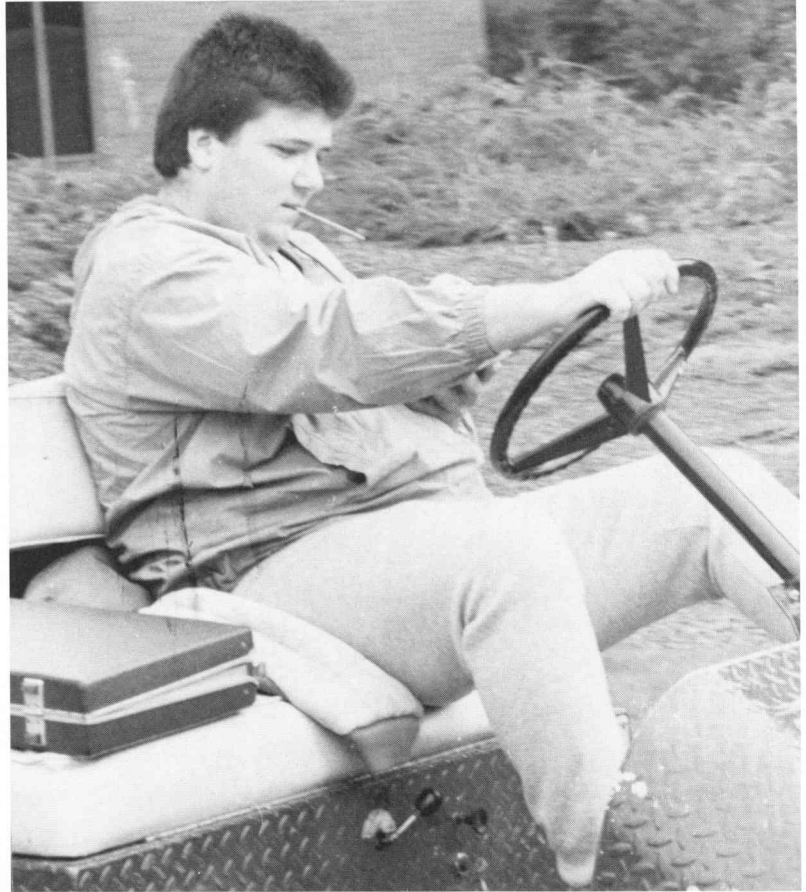

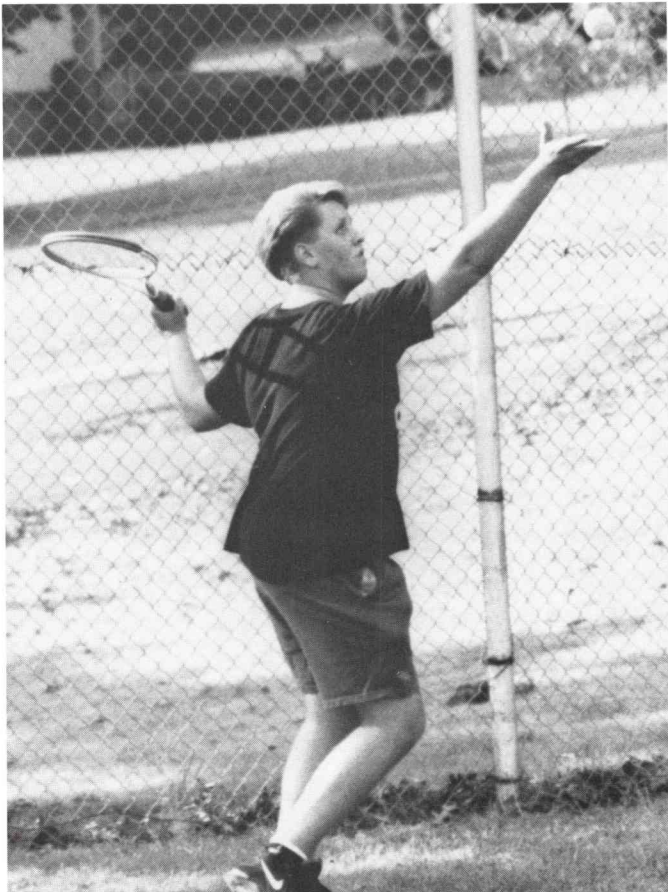

Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

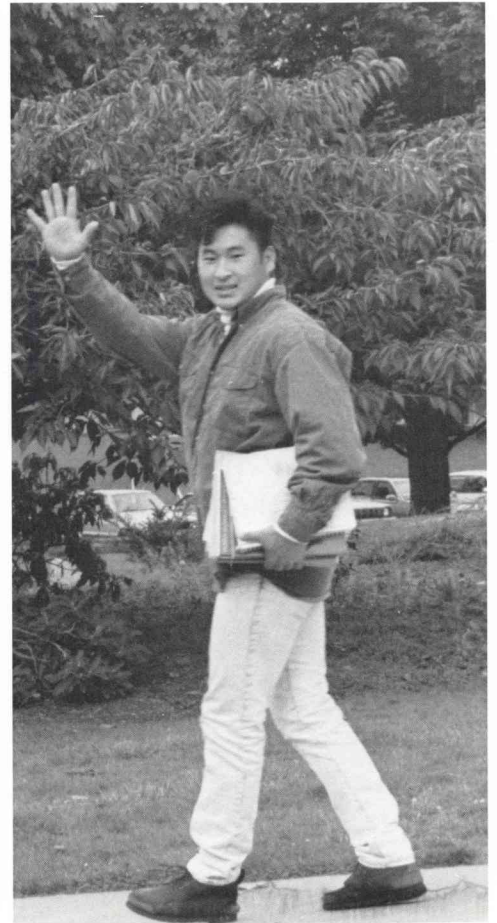

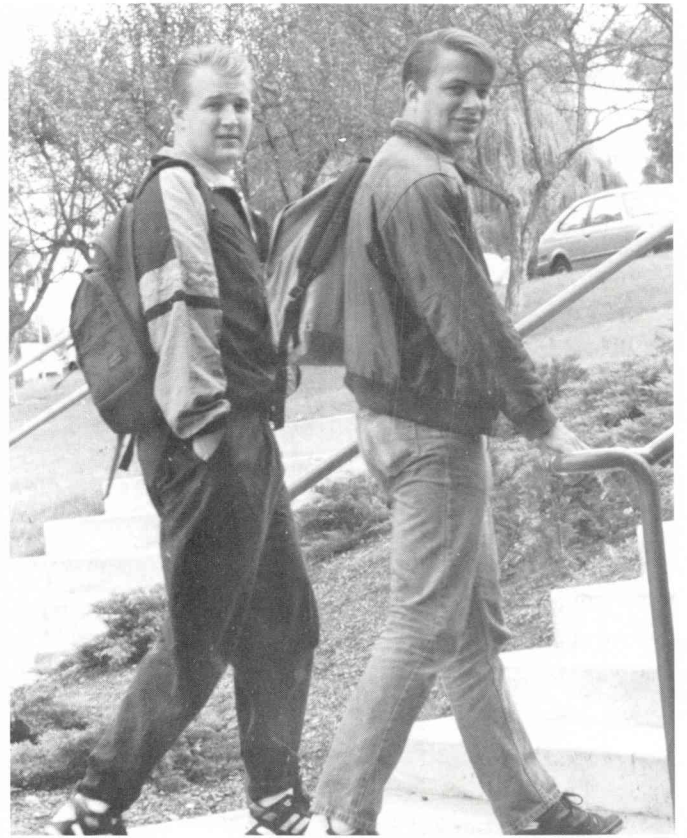

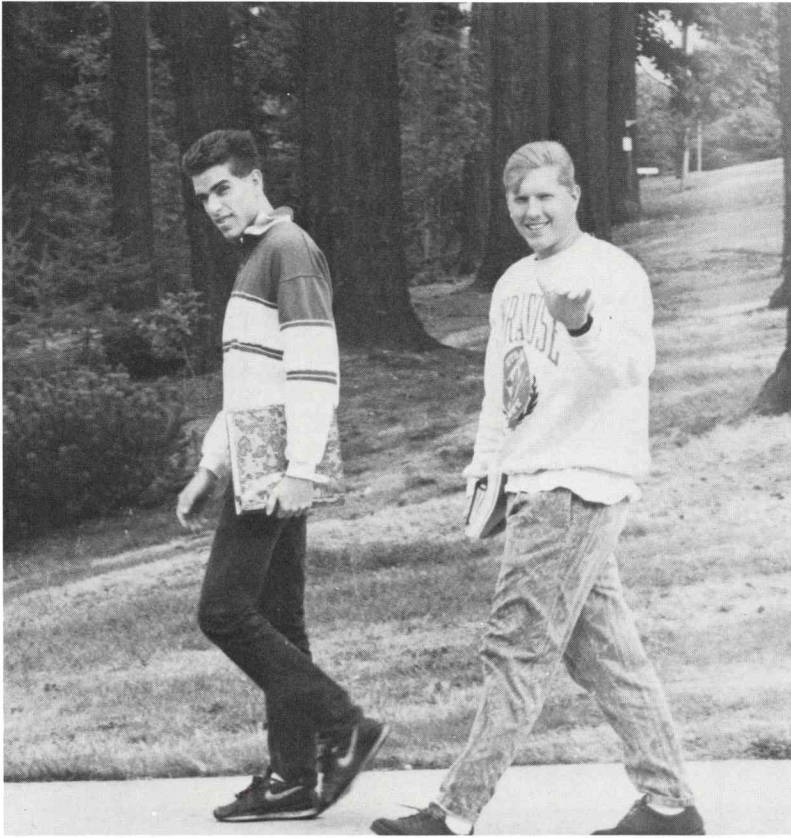

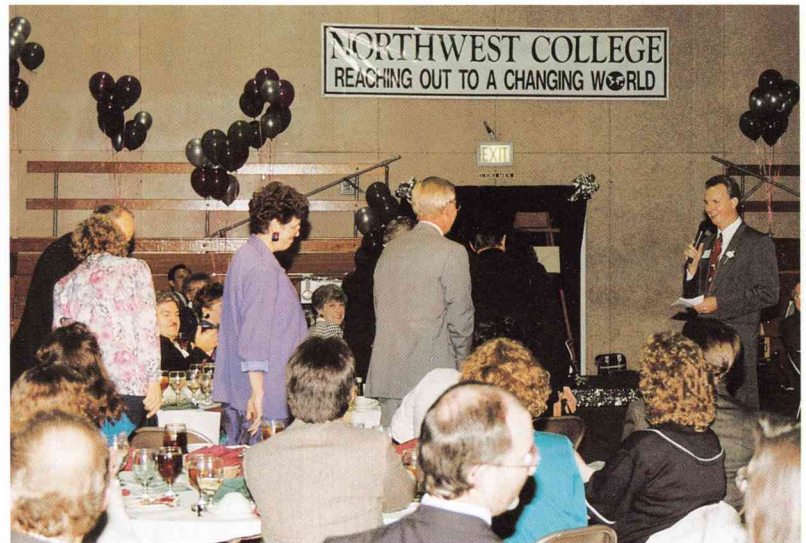

"In the morning, O Lord, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait in expectation."

Psalm 5:3 (NIV)

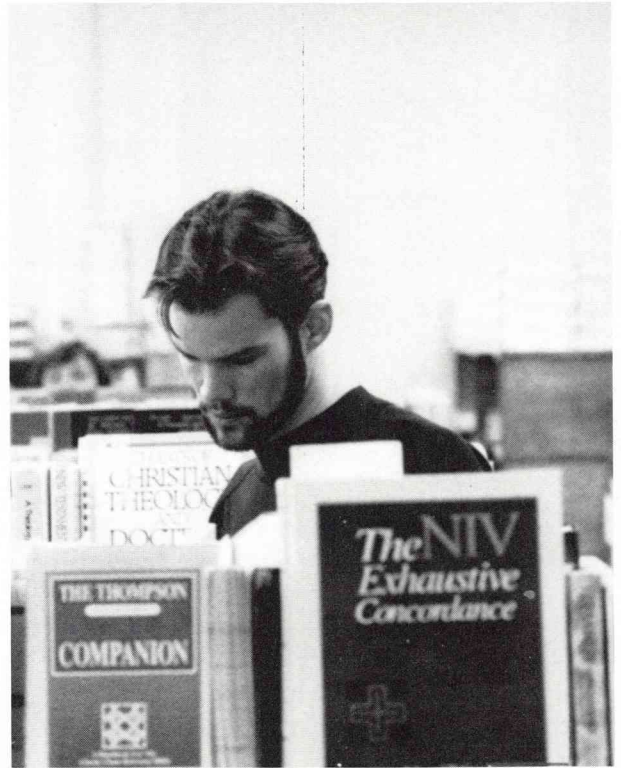

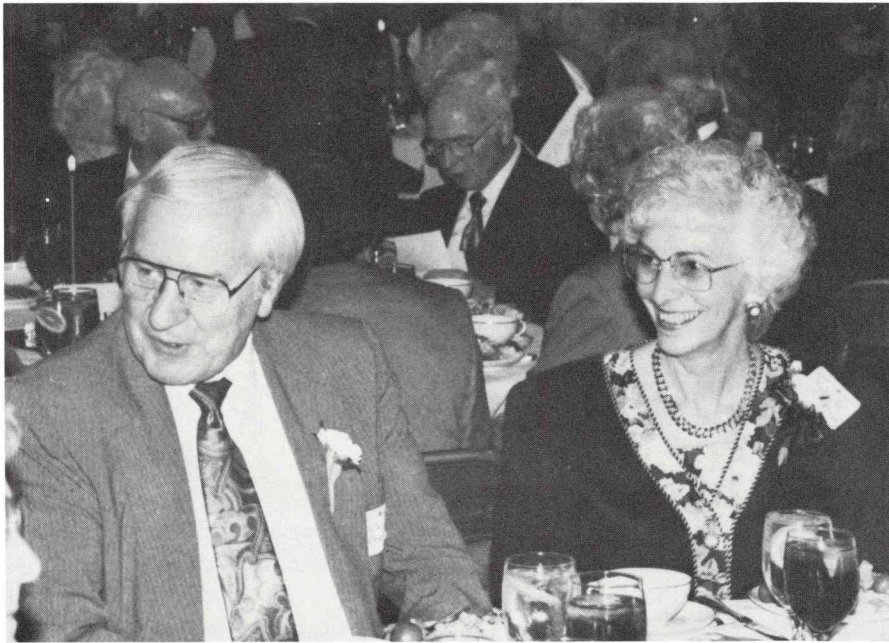

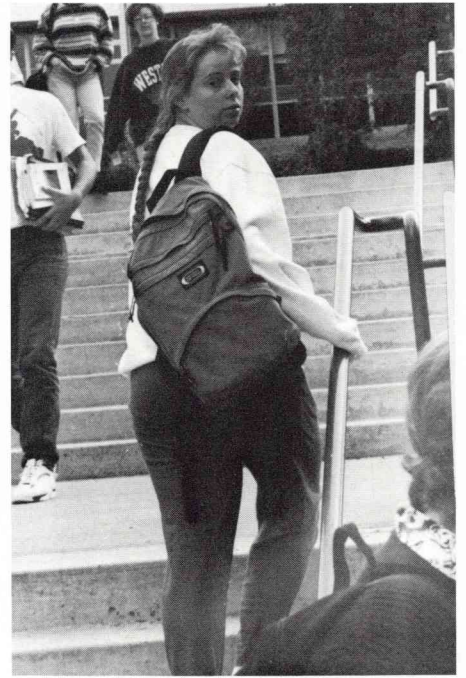

“For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. It teaches us to say ‘No’ to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope — the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.”

Titus 2:11-13a (NIV)

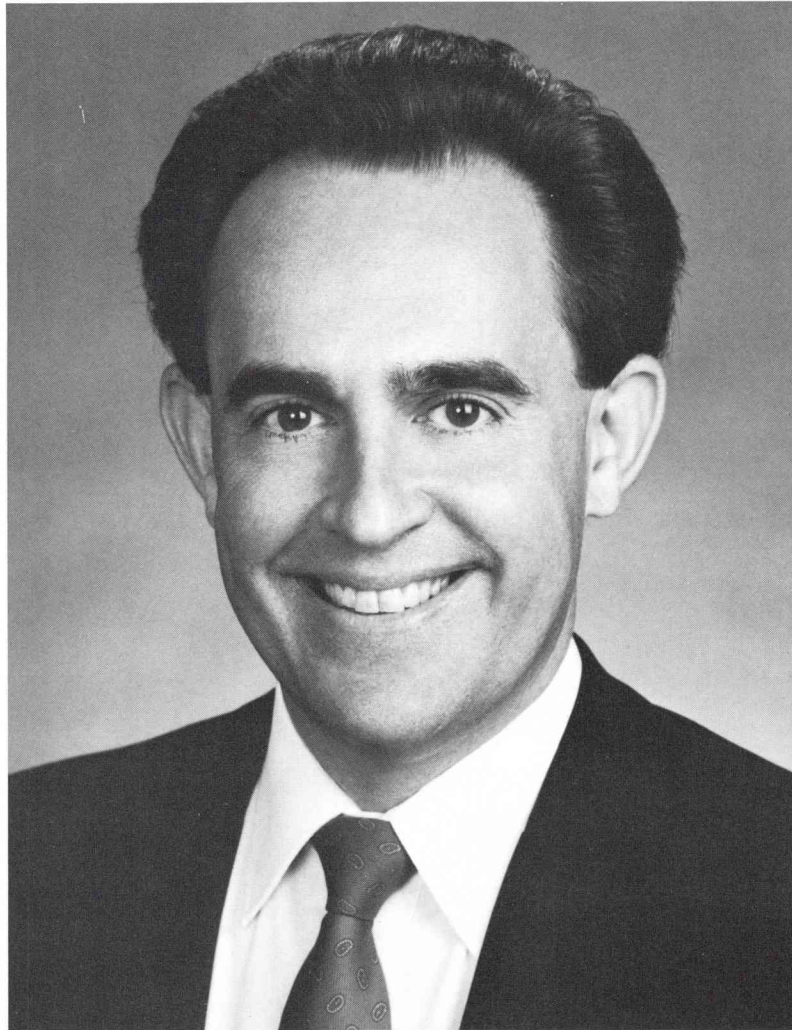

"I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I put my hope."

Psalm 130:5 (NIV)

DR. RANDY BARTON RECOGNITION

In 1973, a young cadet left West Point Military Academy to enroll in Northwest College. He spent a year here before moving on to ultimately complete his Juris Doctorate in law at the University of Idaho. He probably did not realize at the time he left Northwest College that the Lord would direct his life path right back to this campus. That is exactly what happened, and in 1984 Dr. Randy Barton became the Director of Development of Northwest College.

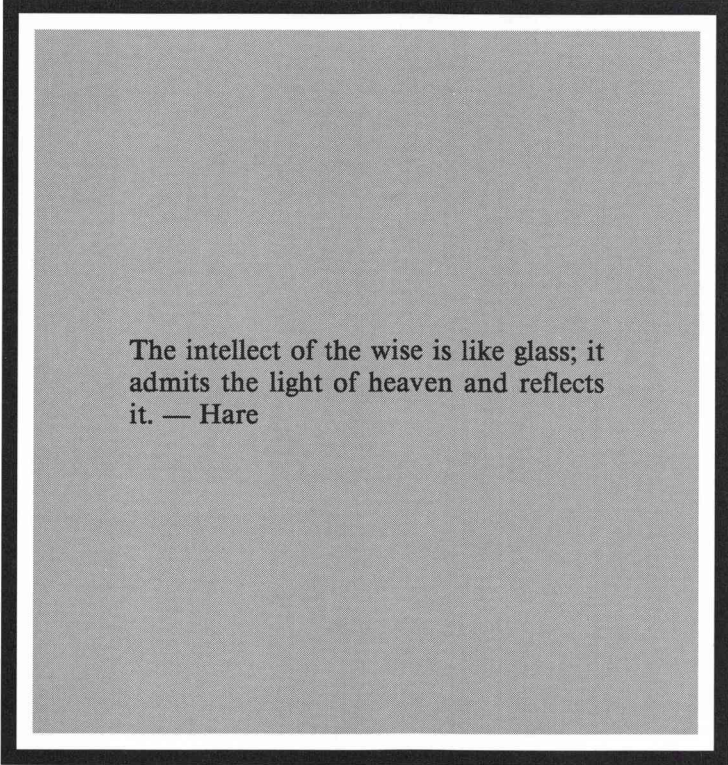

After over eight years of service to Northwest College, Dr. Randy Barton has left, and will continue to leave a deep impression upon this institution. From the role of Vice President for College Advancement, Randy this year assumes a similar position with the Assemblies of God nationally in Springfield, Missouri.

Randy has worn many hats. College administrator, licensed minister, attorney at law, city councilman and mayor of Kirkland, and committee member par excellence. Northwest College is glad that there is a plan being formed to perpetuate his involvement with the Northwest College Foundation. We honor him for all of his achievements and his unceasing dedication to the growth of Northwest College in such areas as campus development, alumni affairs, student scholarships, and endowment fund, and the commitment he exemplifies to excellence for our Lord Jesus Christ. His leadership and innovative contributions are many and varied. He will be missed.

DEDICATION 1993

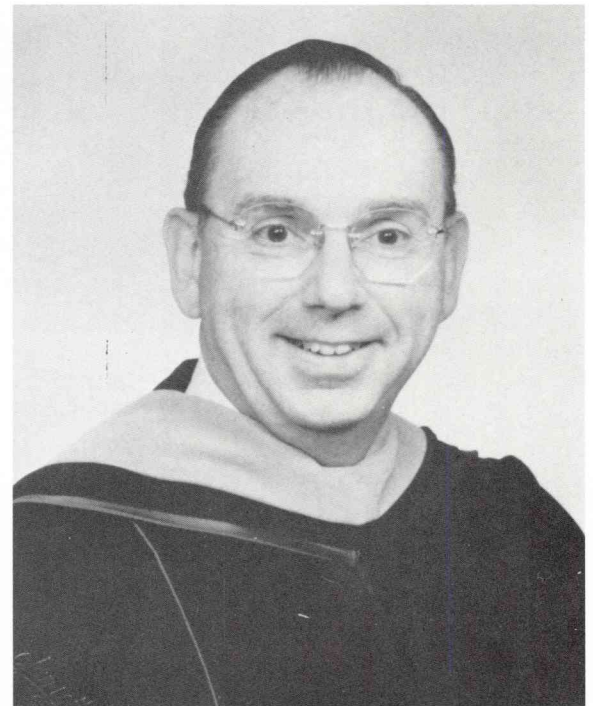

Since he arrived from Texas in 1977, Robert D. Parlotz has been a familiar figure on the NC campus — to those whose eyes are quick enough to follow his rapid dashes from task to task. This “non-conforming conformist,” as he once characterized himself, will be remembered for such things as throwing a huge beach ball from the platform into the audience as he preached in chapel, or illustrating his sermon by having a wedding party parade down the aisle. His students more likely will remember the challenge of his courses, in which they groan but grow. In spite of the demands he places upon them, he is soon recognized as a friend of students, who say he is “a gutsy guy.” Many a hurting student has warmed to his caring support and counsel in their need. The 1988 graduating class elected him Outstanding Professor. For these reasons and more, the 1992-93 Karisma is dedicated to Doctor Bob Parlotz.

Dr. Parlotz currently is Associate Professor of Behavioral Science, Coordinator of the Behavioral Science Degree Program, and Director of Counseling at NC. In addition, he is a self-employed professional counselor and consultant, and serves as senior reserve chaplain with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the US Air Force Reserve. In the latter role, he has traveled the world and participated in significant international activities. His civic involvements are local, state, and national. Yet he finds time for his family — wife Barbara, son David, and daughter Tonya — and his mostly outdoors hobbies. Watch him go!

Student Life

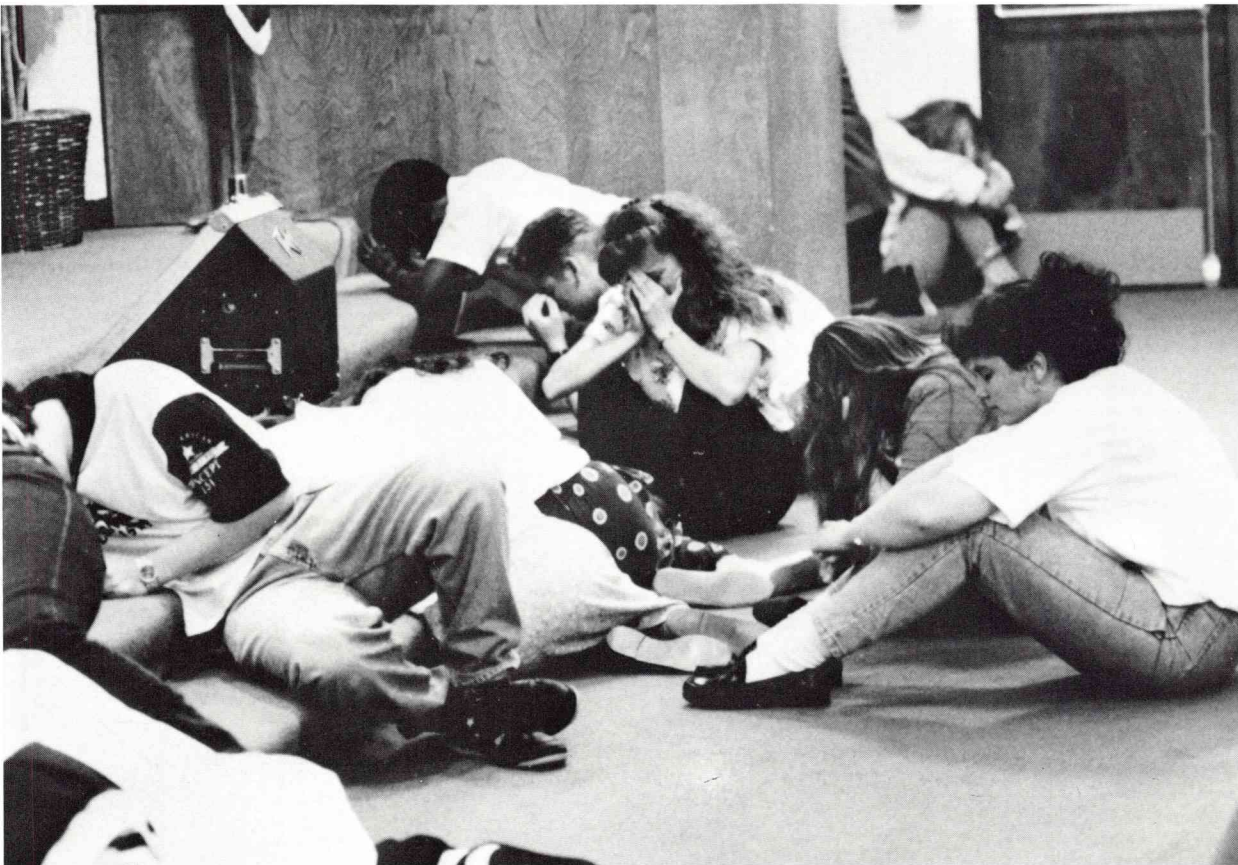

Spiritual Emphasis Week

Spiritual Emphasis Week, September 8-11, was a great time for the students and faculty of NC in focusing on the importance of building quality, biblical relationships. Richard Foth began the week teaching the students never to limit God, for the Lord is capable of doing all things. He taught the students about the “Relational Baseball Diamond” of learning history, sharing experiences, knowing each other more intimately, and building trust. Richard used examples from his own life to vividly explain the usefulness of this relational tool. Foth’s ministry was a great blessing to many people, and lives were changed as a result of it.

“Building Godly Relationships”

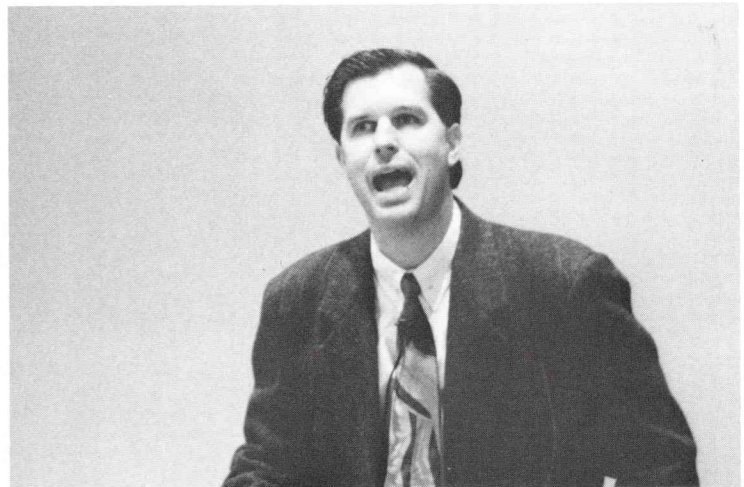

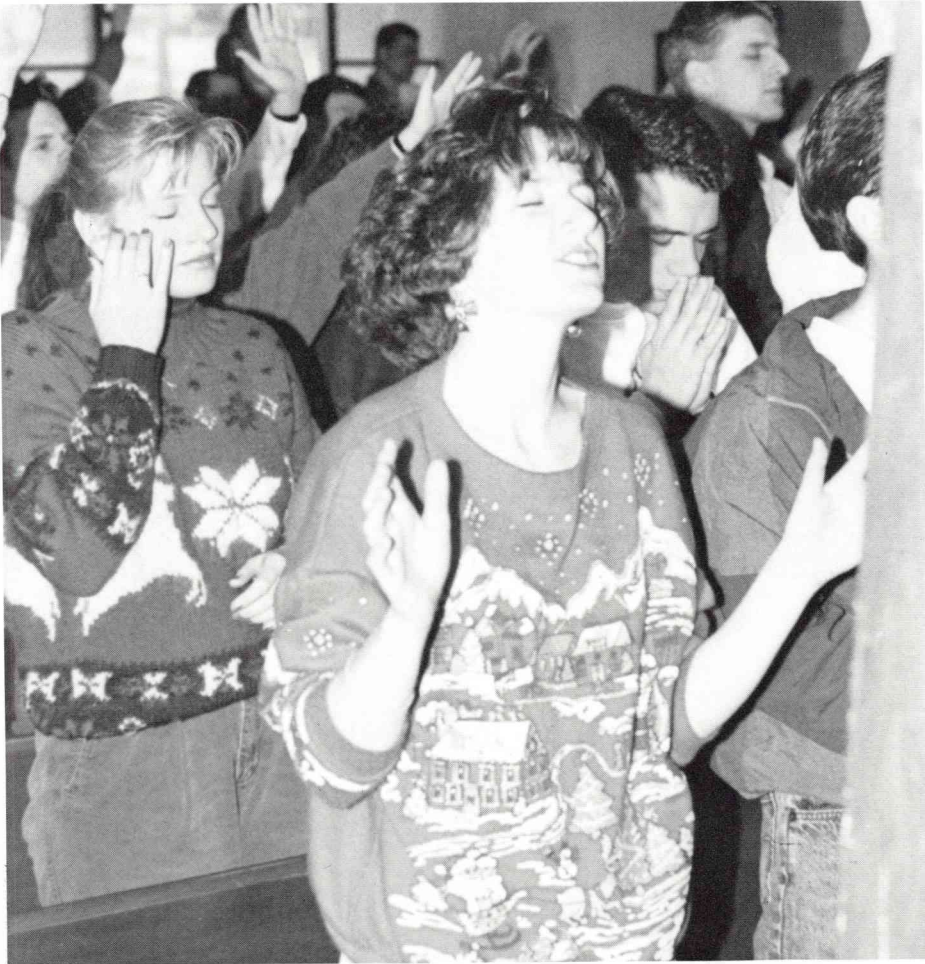

Spiritual Life

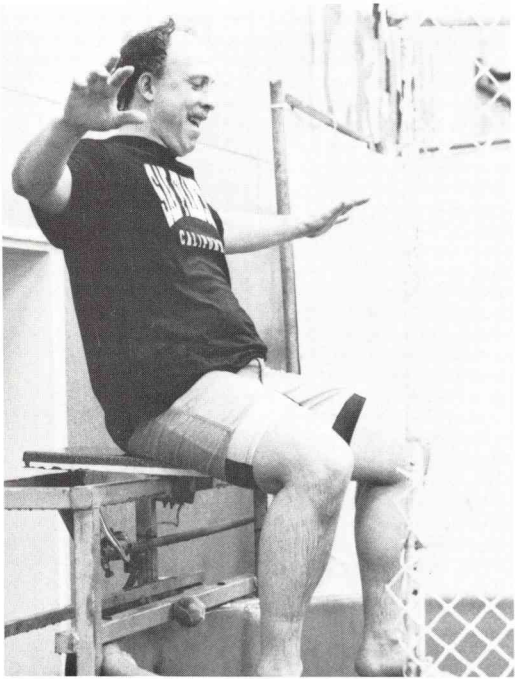

“Expect It!”

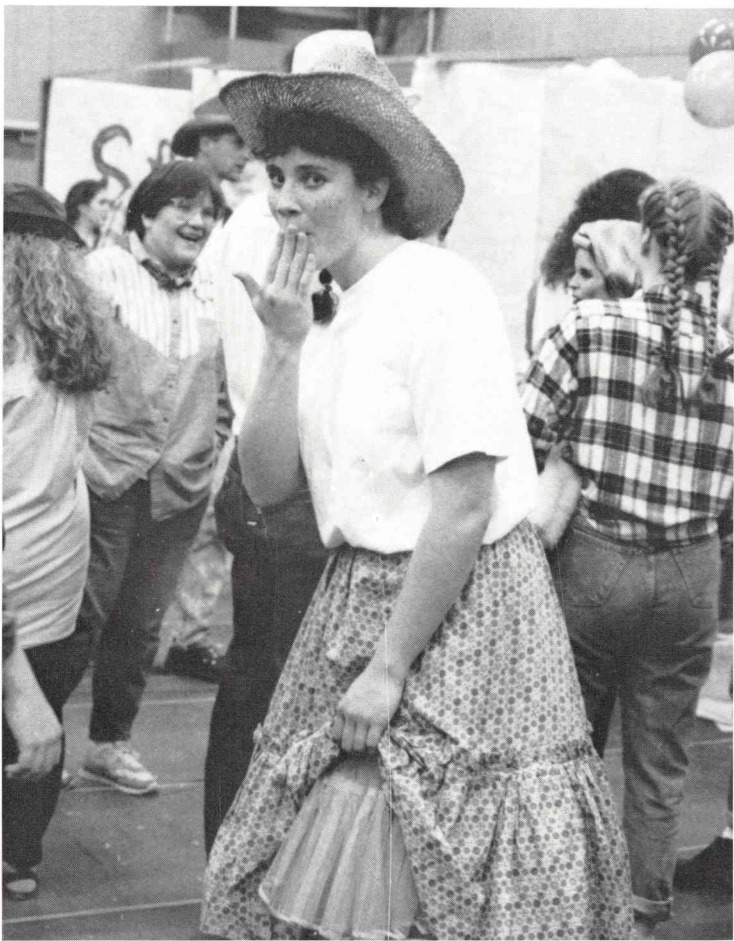

The Spirit of God touched the lives of students on and off campus. “Expect God to move through you” was a statement repeated by students many times throughout the year. Worship chapels, AWS and AMS gatherings, and All-School Prayer meetings exemplified the students’ desire to seek after God and His will for their lives. “Warm a Body, Soften a Heart,” a phrase coined by the Student Ministry team leaders, captured the hearts and minds of the student body to reflect Jesus by meeting the needs of homeless people in downtown Seattle. Christ is working through the students of Northwest College to reach the world.

HARVEST SOCIAL

“Hickville County Fair”

Harvest Social, an annual event on the NC campus, was a successful rendition of a Hickville County Fair. Traditional “fair” food such as cotton candy was sold and Pepsi and pizza were given to students free of charge. Booths sponsored by various organizations on campus entertained the students until the Talent Show started.

These booths exhibited a great deal of imagination. A few examples were the Flubber Booth, the Apple Bobbing Booth, and a Shooting Gallery. Rose-mary Kim would like to say “thank you” to all those who helped put the social together and for their devotion and time. “Ya’ll did a wonderful job.”

Resident Life Staff

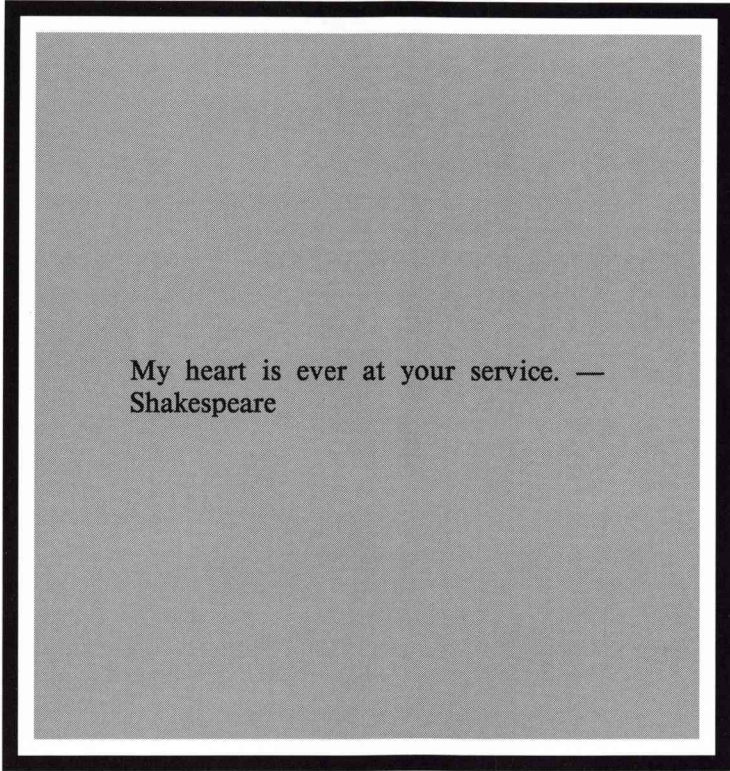

The Resident Life Staff consists of Resident Deans, Resident Counselors, and Resident Assistants. These are people who give their time, energy, and lives in helping make the life of students on campus better. They have floor parties, prayer, and various other events to unite their floors in purpose and in friendship and, of course, to have fun. One RA, when asked what her favorite part of being a Resident Assistant was, replied, "To get to know each person and watch them grow spiritually and personally." A Resident Life Staff worker is "not just another face in the crowd." Staff members are committed and called of God to be servants and to love unconditionally.

Activities

ASB

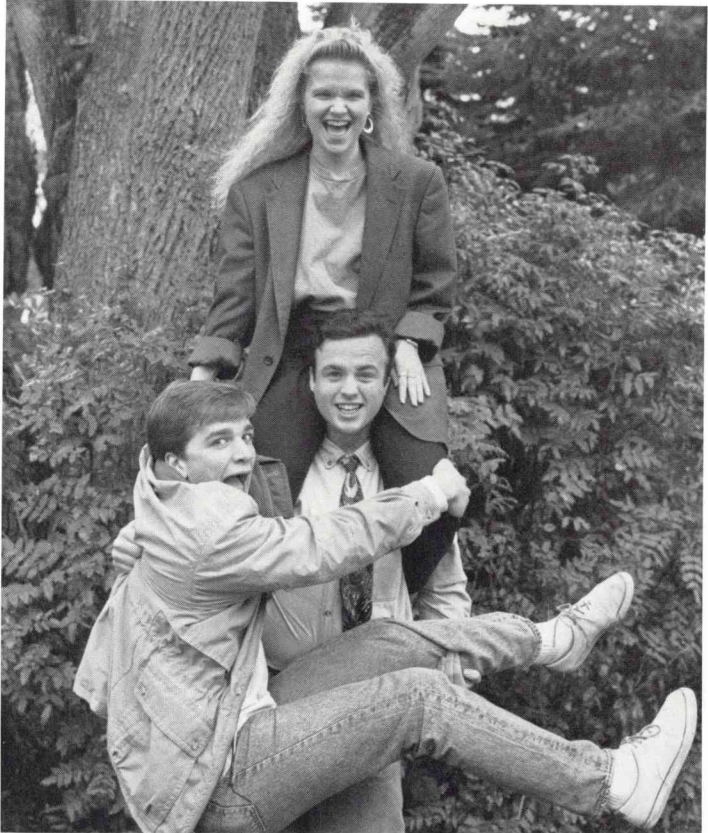

The Associated Student Body officers worked hard this year to build relationships with the community and involve students in every aspect of college life. ASB sponsored many activities, such as the All-School Picnic, Harvest Time Social, and Mariners Night. A unique event took place on Veterans Day. Brad Klippert with ASB arranged for two helicopters to visit Northwest College so students and members of the community could tour them. ASB participated in chapel many times, leading worship, sharing special Christmas memories, and having Wes Davis speak on the grace of God and His healing power. The leadership and guidance of the ASB officers have been greatly appreciated.

Sophomore Class Officers: Kerrie Daniels, Peter Lynch, Jeff Smith

Senior Class Officers: Lora-Jean Anderson, Brad Klippert, Ginger Christensen

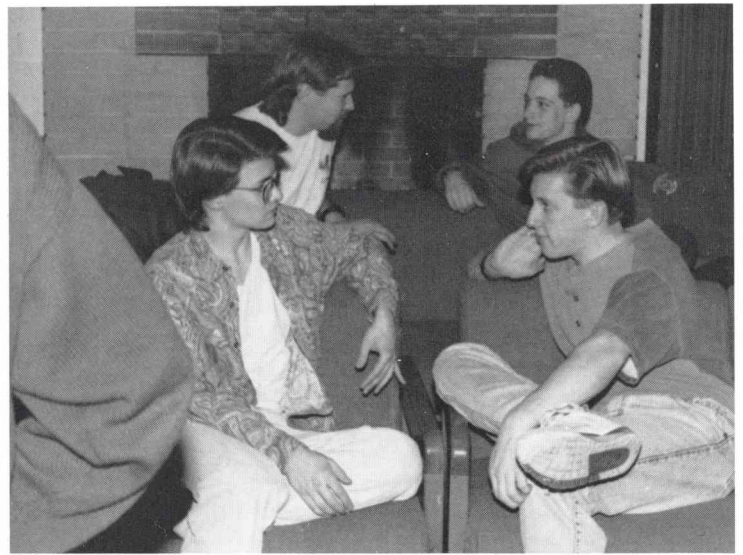

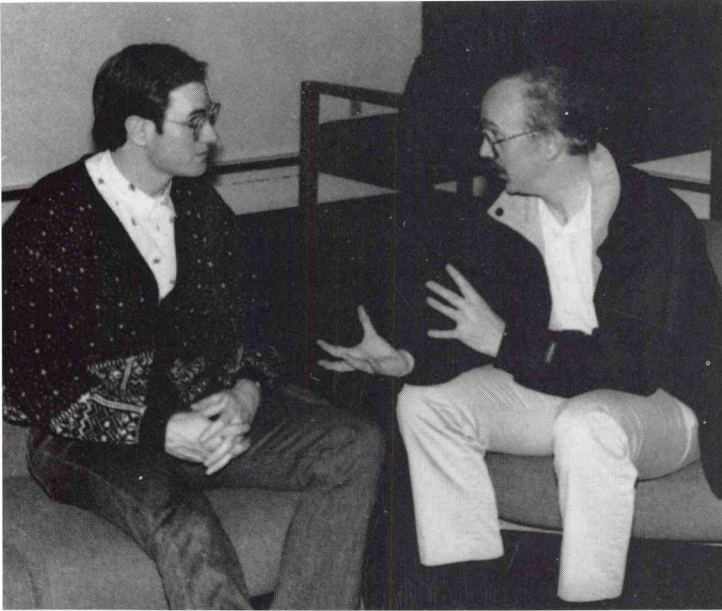

Junior Class Officers: Joe Boyer, Annette Rodriguez, Gil Champion

Associated Men Students

AMS focused on drawing the men closer in fellowship and relationships with Christ and with one another. Activities offered to achieve these purposes included worship services, a comedy night, an open forum with the Ziemkes on relationships, and Break-Out Chapels with special speakers such as Wally Kowalski. The AMS officers, led by Mike Allen, devoted themselves to being servants and reinforcing positive relationships among the male students of Northwest College.

Associated Women Students

The AWS officers purposed in their hearts to establish unity among the women in all aspects of college life. They planned various activities that would minister to the women, as well as lighten their lives with laughter. Some of the events included worship nights, movie nights with Anne of Green Gables, a question and answer time with Barb and Steve Ziemke on relationships, Roomies Night Out, and a talent show. One of the AWS officers remarked that the highlight of the 1992-93 school year among the women was a very positive response towards building relationships and affirmation.

Married Students Association

The married students face the unique challenge while at Northwest College of making time for their families, jobs, and education. The MSA officers, led by George Kafwimbi, focused on involving the married students in activities such as treasure hunts and times of fellowship. Events such as these and others incorporating the entire NC student body are designed to bring the students together in friendship and to relax and have fun in the midst of extremely busy lives. An assistance program for new parents was started this year by MSA to help these moms and dads adjust to having a baby to raise and nurture. MSA also desires to get the married students involved with community projects such as feeding and clothing people in need. They have already seen a great interest among students to gather together for prayer and fellowship, and would like to take that same kind of love and concern for each other to a hurting world.

KNCR

One of the unique activities Northwest College offers is its own radio station. KNCR, Northwest College Radio, gives students who are interested in radio a chance to learn how to operate a radio station. The students gain skills in creativity, communication, and radio mechanics. The 1992-93 DJ's focused on playing a large variety of music and programming in an effort to reach every type of audience on campus.

Forensics

This was the tenth year for the Forensics team at Northwest College. Forensics means public forum or speaking in public. Students every year compete against twenty-five area colleges and universities in persuasive, informative, impromptu, and extemporaneous speaking, interpretive reading, and in duo interpretation. Jon Riser was "Best Speaker of the Year" and Thad Meyer "Most Improved." Members strove to improve their communication skills while competing with various students, many non-Christian. The speech team took advantage of the opportunity to share Jesus with these peers. A highlight of the year was skillful interpretive reading in which students read literature dramatically.

Ministry Groups

“Expectancy”

NC students were busily involved in ministry this year. With the new Prayer Chain and clothing distribution ministries, lives were touched, and the goal of students reaching the community with a message of salvation was achieved. “Warm A Body, Soften A Heart” was the watchword as the student body came together as one for the work of Christ in meeting others’ needs. Students lived in expectancy, waiting to see what God would do next. A “thank you” to the ministry leaders for their involvement, dedication, and consistency, and to Pastor Al for his wisdom and help. They made a difference.

Missions

Missions is a mandate from God to all Christians. It is an attitude of giving and prayer and reaching out to the unsaved peoples wherever we are located or whatever we are doing. It is a responsibility of the whole body of Christ to be a part of missions. The leaders for missions desired to see more involvement of students in prayer and in the annual convention. Prayer meetings were held at Dr. Turner's house every Sunday night.

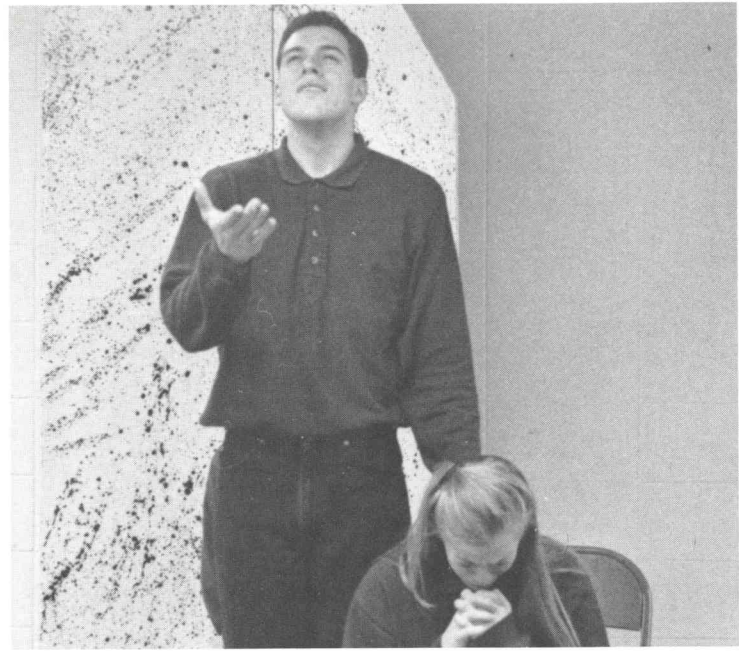

All the representatives for Asia Pacific, Eurasia, North America, Latin America, Africa, and Jumaa Prayer Fellowship met at the same time for prayer this year. These prayer meetings established a unity among all the members as they prayed for their countries in one accord. Missions is a large part of Northwest, with the Pacific Rim Centre, China Awareness, TESL instruction for Asian countries, scholarships for AIM trips, and MAPS assignments.

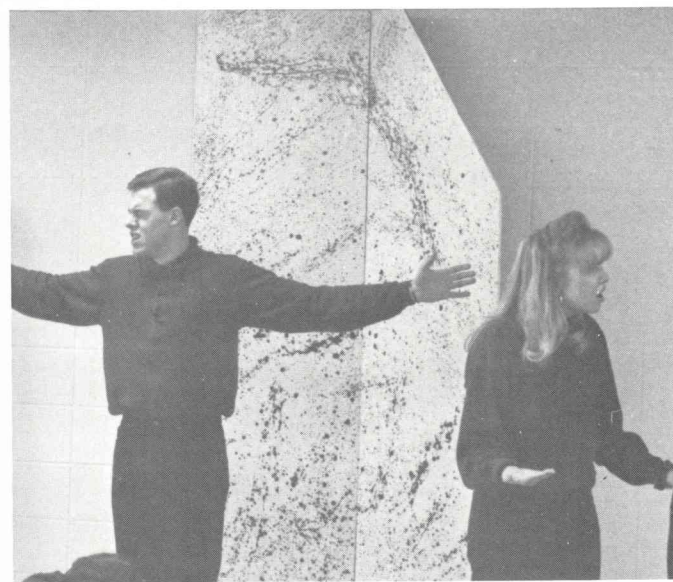

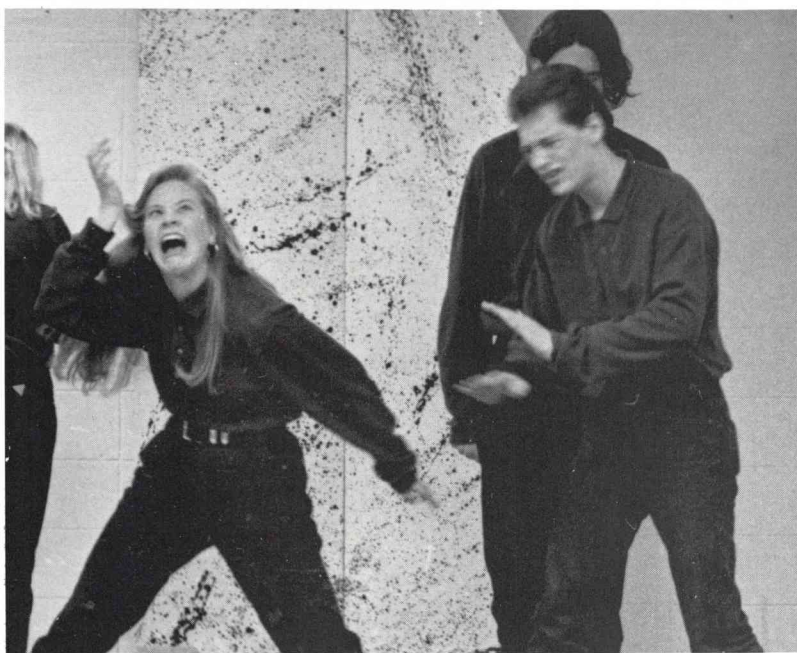

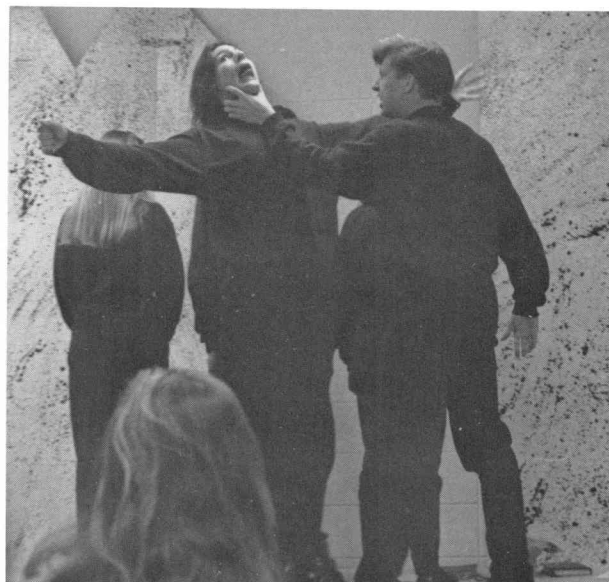

Announcing Christ Through Skits

ACTS is a dynamic team of dramatic people with a genuine heart for ministry. They purposed in 1992-93 to be more than just Christian entertainment, to see lives changed through their ministry, and to be professional, for the Lord has called all His children to excellence. Led by President Candi Sparre, ACTS portrayed the lukewarm Christian life as a reminder for believers to maintain a consistent and servant-

like-attitude. The team performed a poignant skit called "Do You Feel Their Pain?" choreographed by Candi in mime to the song. The question is close to the hearts and minds of each ACTS member. In an interview, Candi expressed her "great love and appreciation for these guys." Northwest College students and faculty and others who have seen ACTS perform have been touched by their ministry.

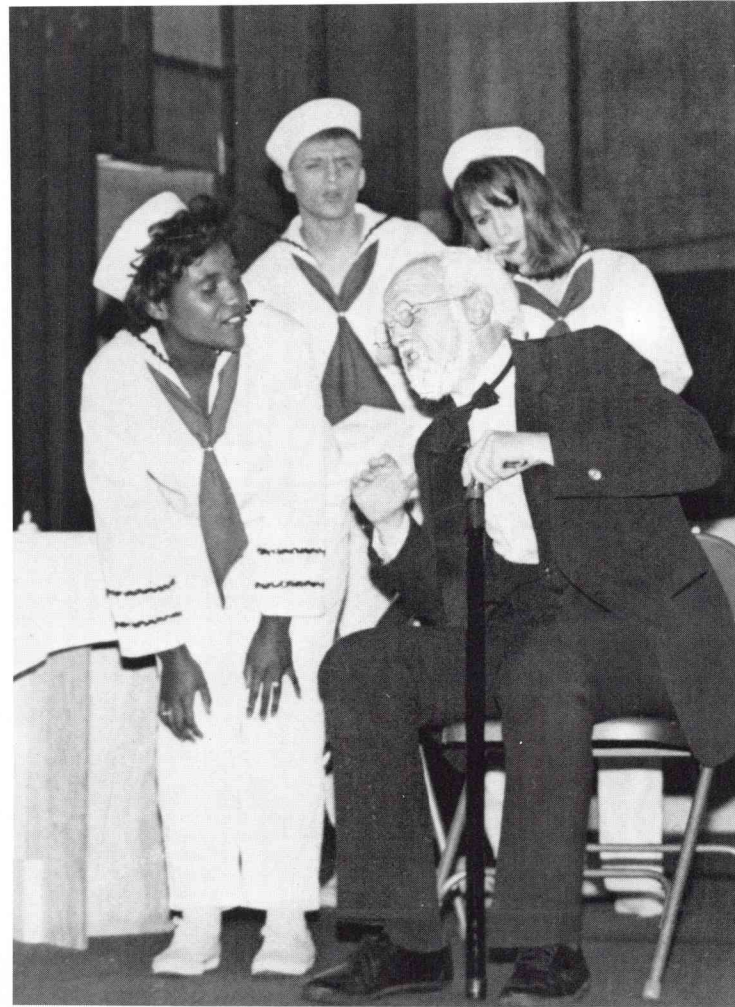

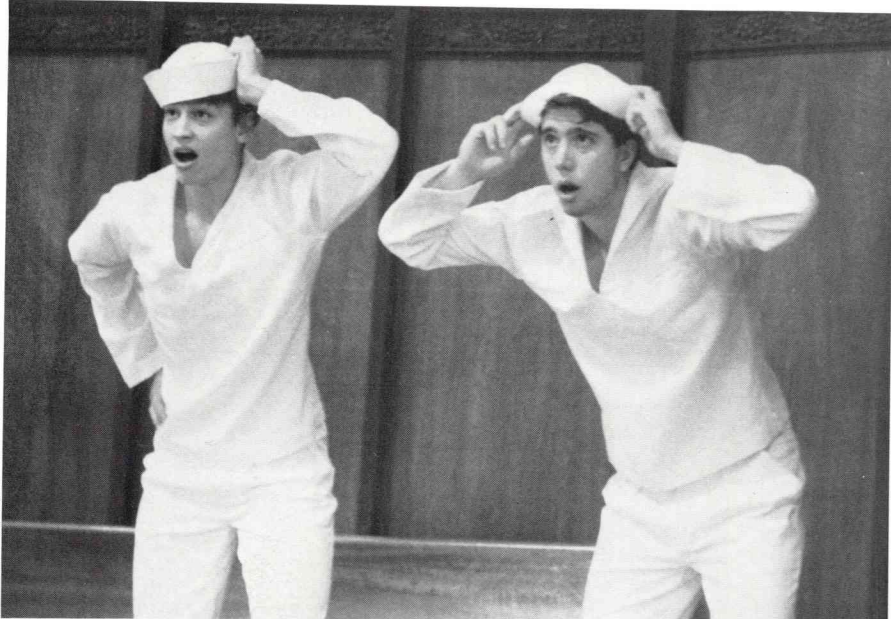

Fall Play

“The Agape Boat”

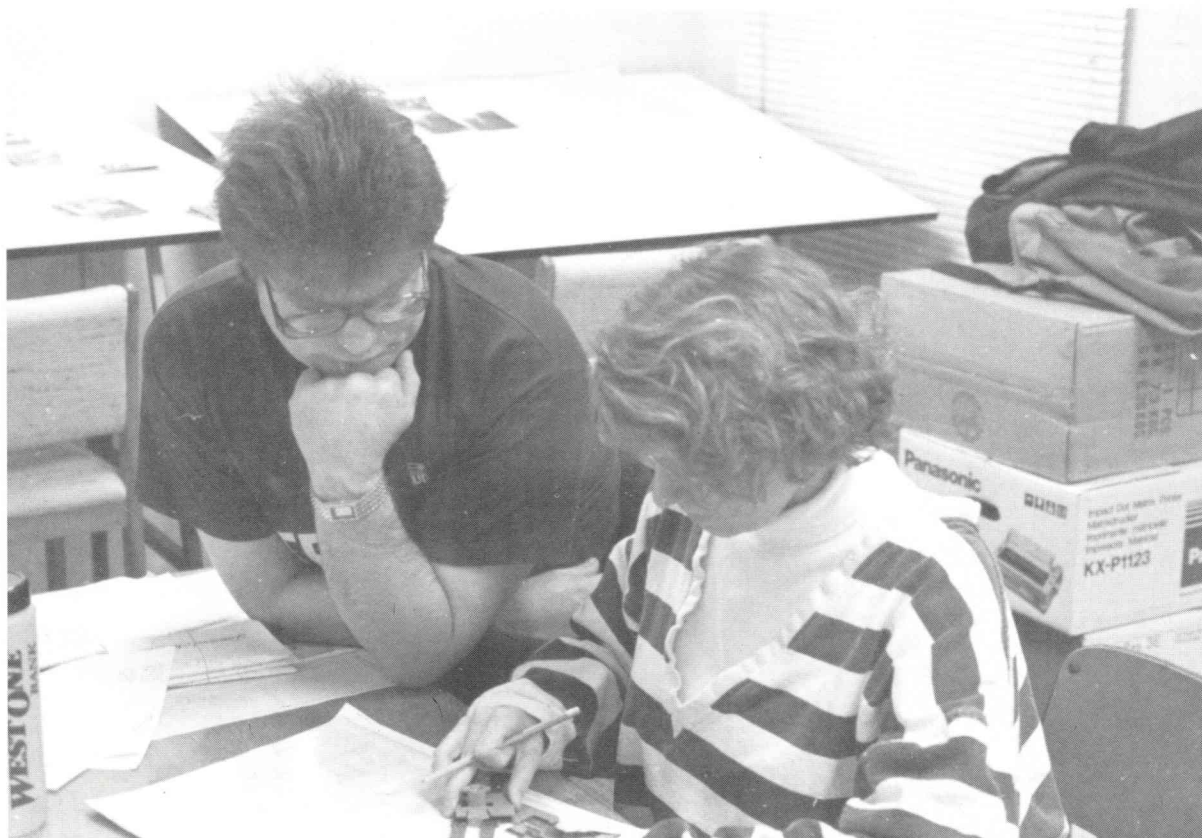

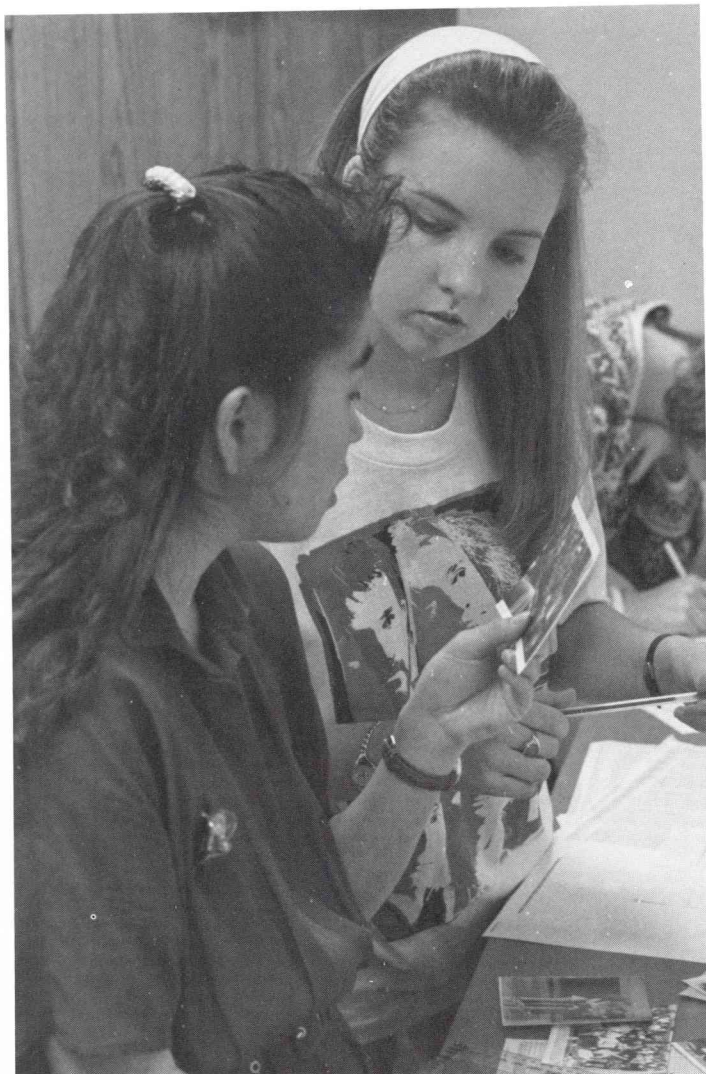

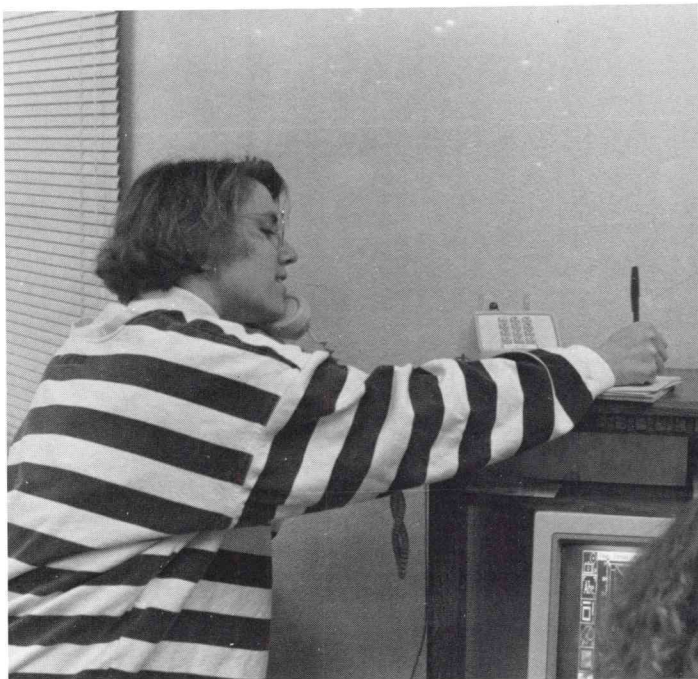

“Come aboard a fictional ship where passengers and crew set an uncharted comical course in God’s will. Anything can happen, and it does!” on “The Agape Boat.” Directed by Daniel Schmoll, “The Agape Boat” touched lives through comedy and drama with a message of love and acceptance. The play explored the difficulty and joy in restoring broken relationships as depicted by the characters Helen, Steve, Lisa, and Kevin. Tyler, portrayed by Jim Huevel, was a retired missionary who helped these confused and hurting characters find restoration from a loving God. According to the actors and actresses of “The Agape Boat,” it is never too late to start over again in Christ.

Festival Chorale

Festival Chorale is a choir created to involve in music ministry students who could not commit to travelling during the school year or summer break. The Chorale presented a Christmas program and performed in other ceremonies such as Graduation.

The choir consisted of the Northwest Sounds and King's Choralons, plus other students and faculty members interested in music. Festival Chorale has been a success, increasing in size and participation.

Paul Melidona, Director

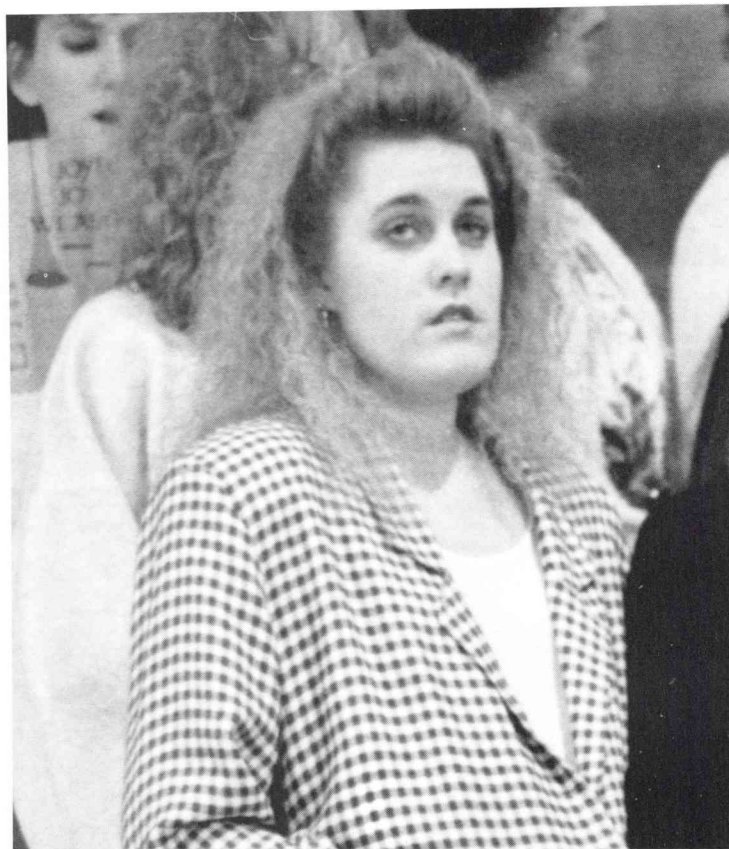

King's Choralons

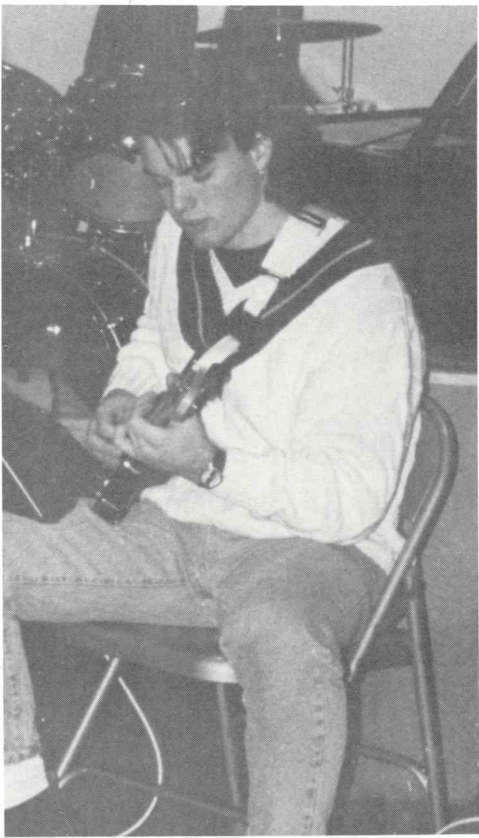

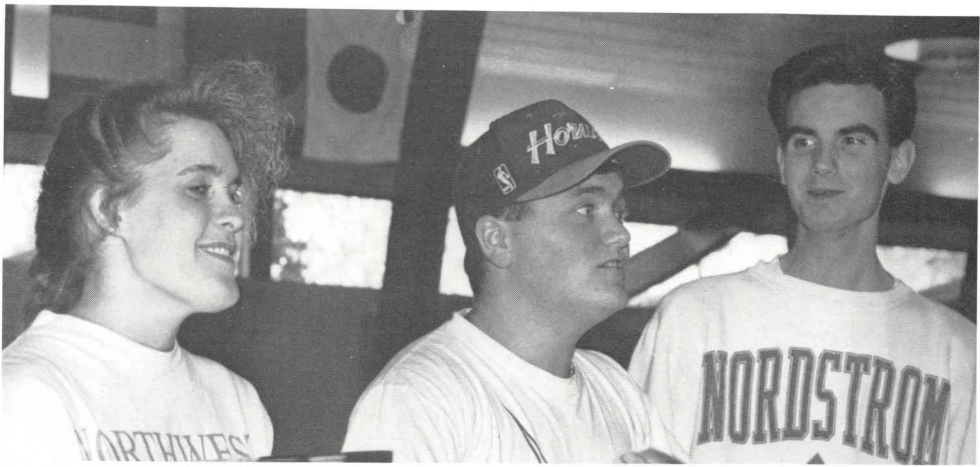

This year was the Choralon's first year under the direction of Paul Melidona. The Choralons will travel throughout Washington, Canada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, and Utah on a two-week tour at the end of the school year. Members have worked to memorize scriptures that correspond with songs such as the "Love of God," "In Christ Alone," and "You're The One."

Choralons incorporated sign language into their program to reach an even greater audience of people. The choir met weekly for prayer and saw several miracles of healing which brought the choir closer together and prepared their hearts for ministry. One member stated, "It's an investment that pays off." The Choralons blessed and ministered to many people.

Northwest Sounds

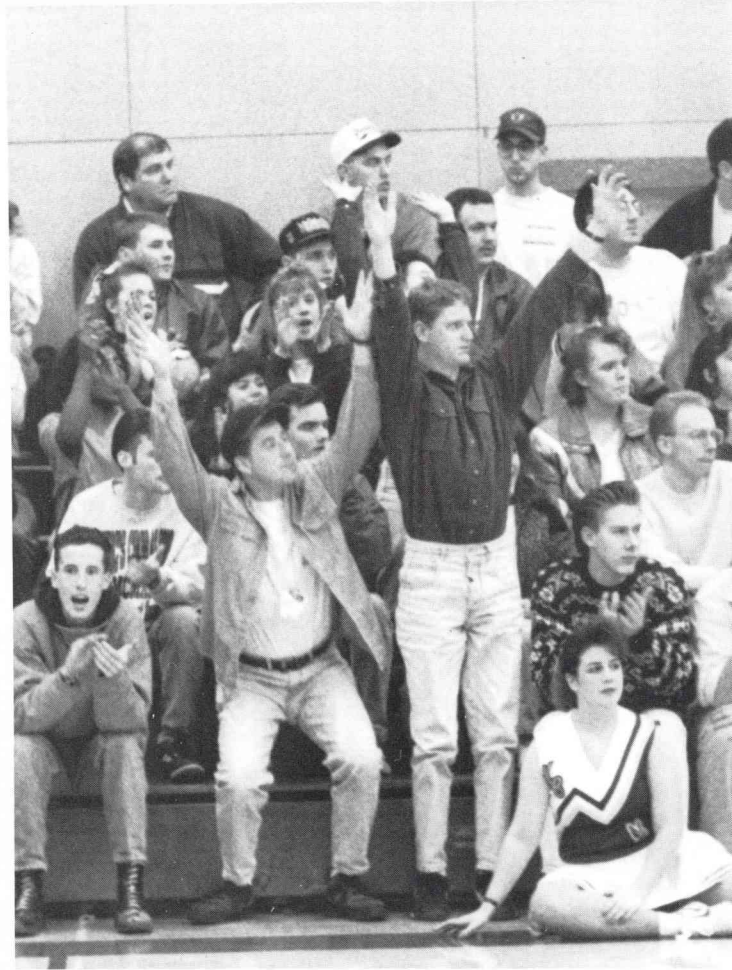

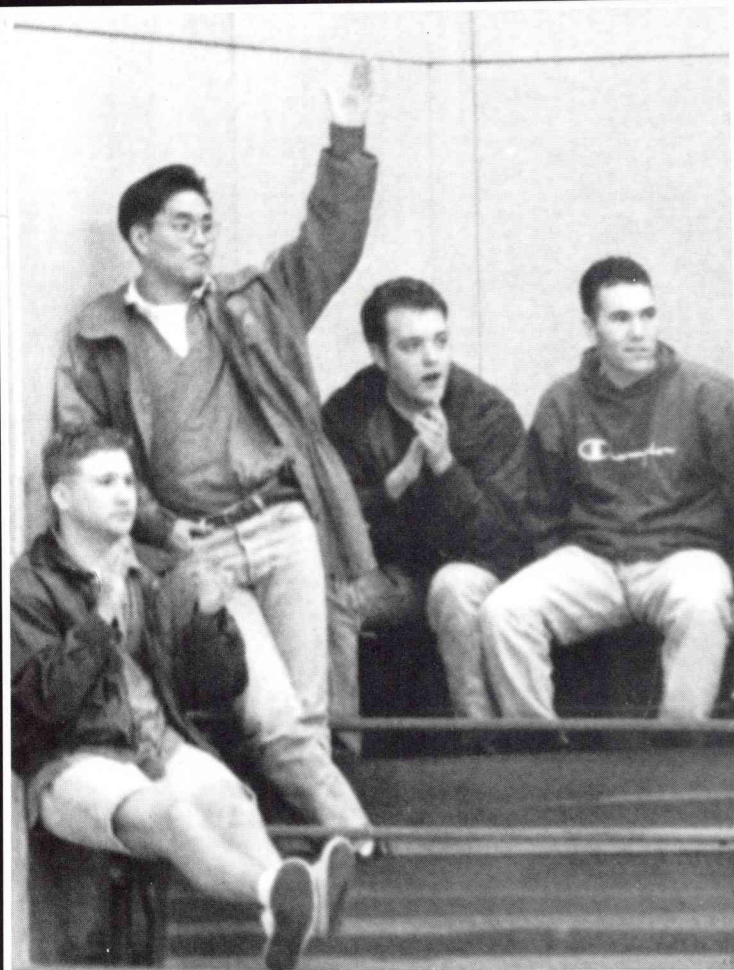

Northwest Sounds is a unique musical group at Northwest College. Under the student leadership of Steve Severyn and Andy Hatton, the group worked extremely hard this year, knowing it was up to them to have a smooth sound and to know their music. Sounds performed in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho. During the summer, they will tour through Alaska. The members focus intently on their ministry and the importance of it. They performed songs that had special meaning to them this year and in past years, such as "Flawless," "Let The Redeemed," and "Cast All Your Cares," songs which focused on the fact that people need to know they can find hope in the Lord.

Sports

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

Every fall, the men students and some women students gather together to play intramural football. On Saturdays, fans go to the Seahawks' practice field and watch their favorite floor compete against other floors or off-campus students. For the past five years, the Beatty 100 team has successfully maintained its championship standing. Jeffery Portmann was quoted as saying, "This championship was the sweetest for me. We really came together and played as a team. I am very proud of my guys because we faced a lot of adversity. However, we used that to bring us together in unity." Congratulations to Beatty 100, the "Birds of Pray."

SOCCER

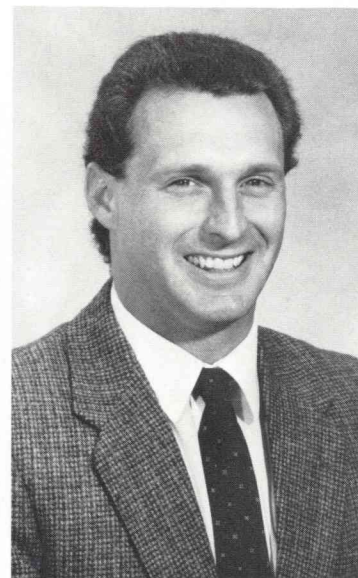

Northwest College's soccer team had a great season this year under the leadership of Glenn Mayer. When interviewed, Mayer stated, "I was really proud of how the players stuck together even through the difficult times." The players started out playing well, but, as the season progressed, they played even better. Their enthusiasm stemmed from winning games such as the Columbia Bible College Soccer Tournament. Soccer coach Glenn Mayer's goal for the year was to start training players year-round so they would be even more prepared for next season. Together, the coach and players are reaching their goals.

VOLLEYBALL

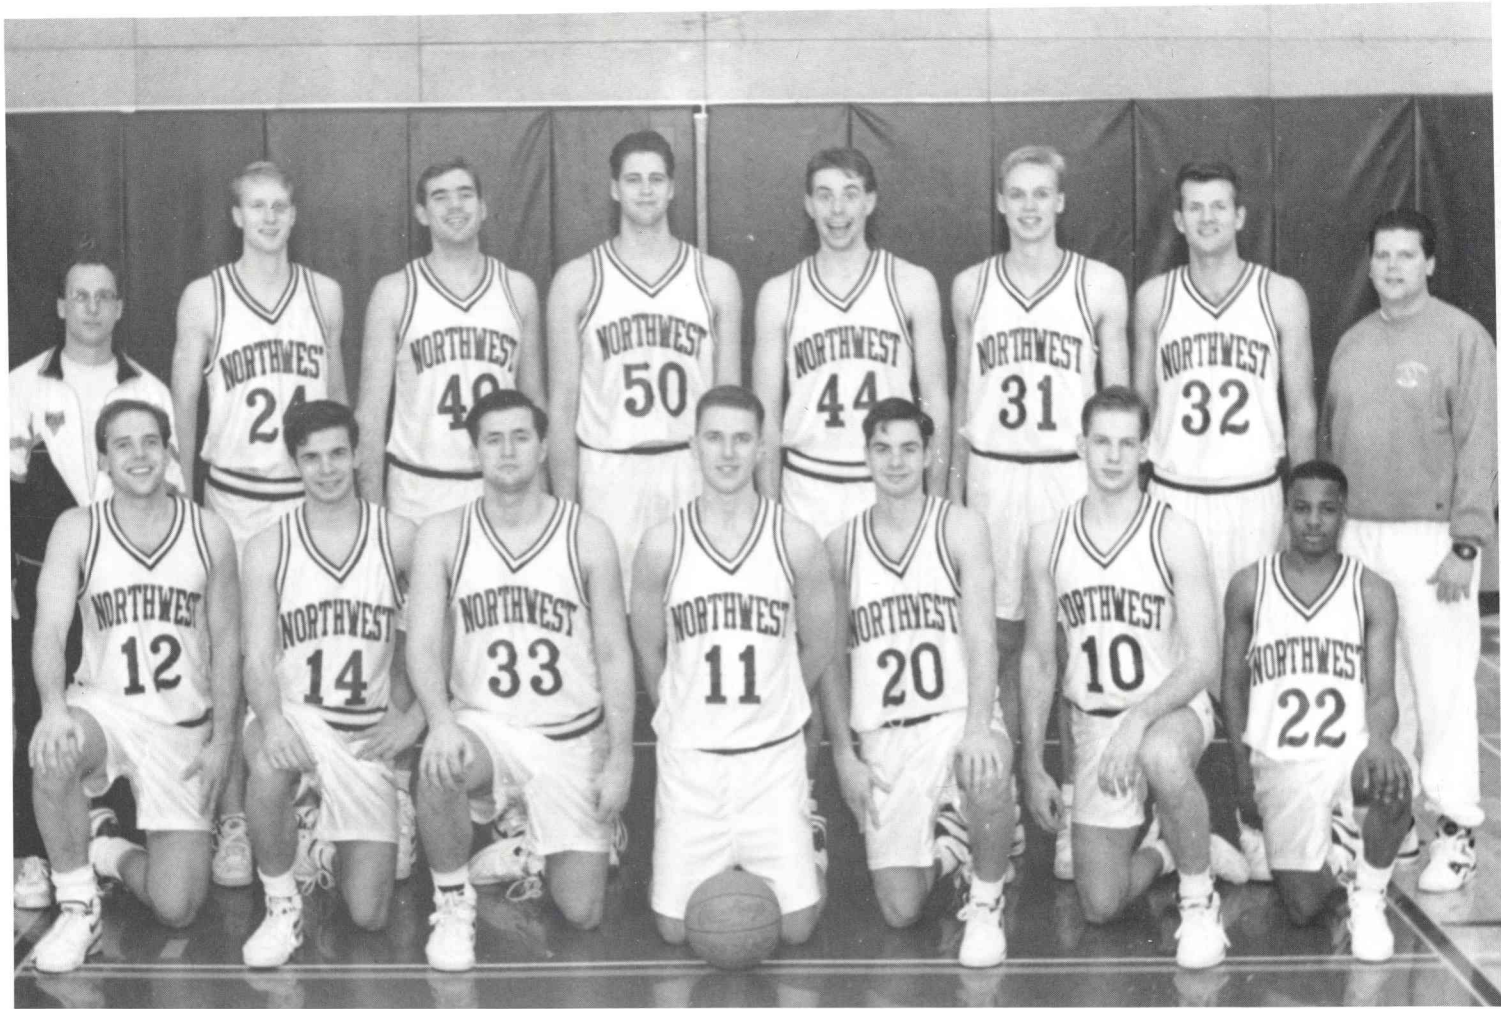

The '92-'93 volleyball season exhibited all-around talented players who worked hard together as a team. Team players established close relationships on and off the volleyball court. They played their best with tough enthusiasm at the Walla Walla Tournament this season. In an interview, Captain Dena Cambra stated, "It has been an extra special year building friendships on and off the court and playing with these individuals. It has most definitely been the highlight of my career." Good job, Lady Eagles!

Men's Basketball

The 1992-93 men's basketball team was a diversified unit. Each member contributed different skills and abilities which greatly benefited the team as a whole. The statistics support the excellence displayed by the men, for they beat many upper division teams such as Western Washington University and George Fox. According to Wes Davis, this year's basketball team was the best team NC has ever had. The men are to be commended for their fine display of talent in winning the National Championship.

Women's Basketball

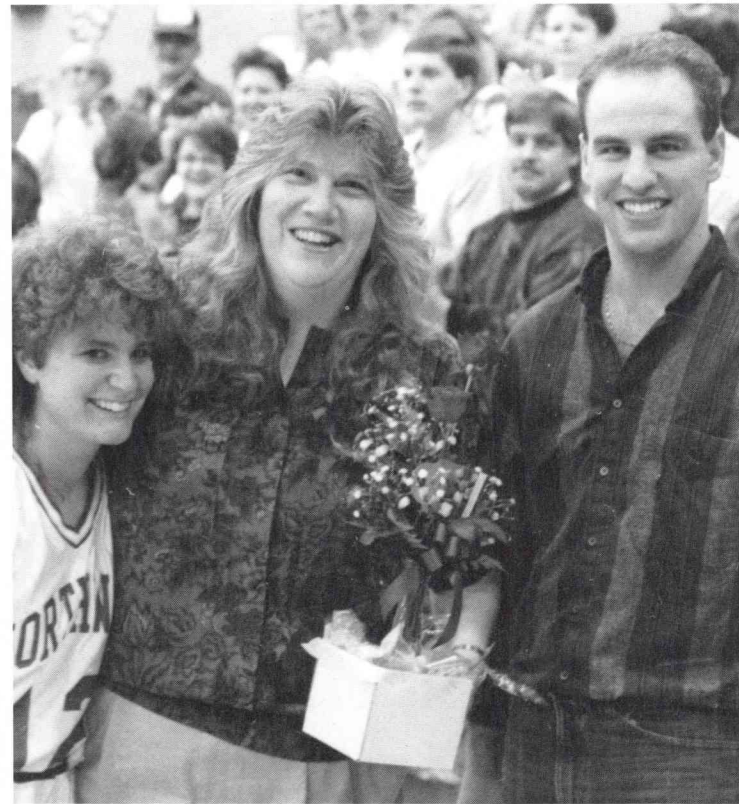

The Northwest College Eagles started out as a new team this year, but with teamwork and determination, they demonstrated great talent on the court. This season the women players carried one of the longest winning streaks in the history of NC of ten games in a row. A highlight of the year was when the women beat Sheldon Jackson for the first time in over four years.

Captain Dena Cambra stated, "It has been a privilege to play with and for such talented and quality individuals." With their eyes focused on God and with the supportive, encouraging direction of Coach Kristi Brodin, the women's basketball team achieved excellence on the court while building solid friendships, too. Way to go, National Champs!

Farewell

Class of '93...we are all extremely proud of you and congratulate you on the accomplishment of completing your college course work. You have brought joy to my life while you have been here, but I rejoice in the great future that lies ahead of you. I am confident that you are world changers and that this world will not remain the same because of you. Your college education has not given you all the answers to life's challenges but, I hope, you have gained the tools that will assist you in a life of service and leadership.

The Apostle Paul said, "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Calvin Coolidge said, "Nothing in this world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent."

I want to encourage you to live a life of prayerful concern where God can continue to speak to you and lead you by His Spirit. May His blessing go with you as you press on in persistence and prayer. The future is bright for the child of God.

— President Dennis A. Davis

“Be Strong”

by

Maltbie Davenport Babcock

Be Strong!

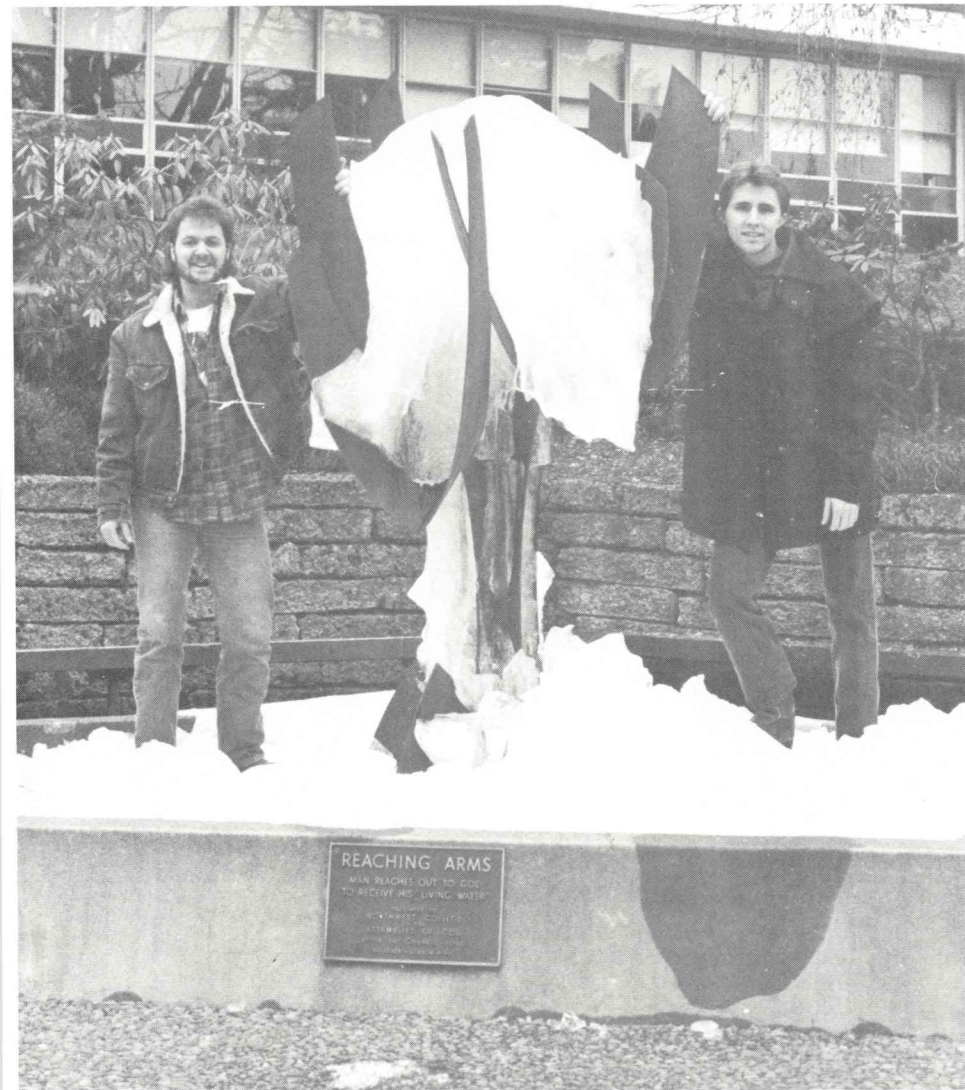

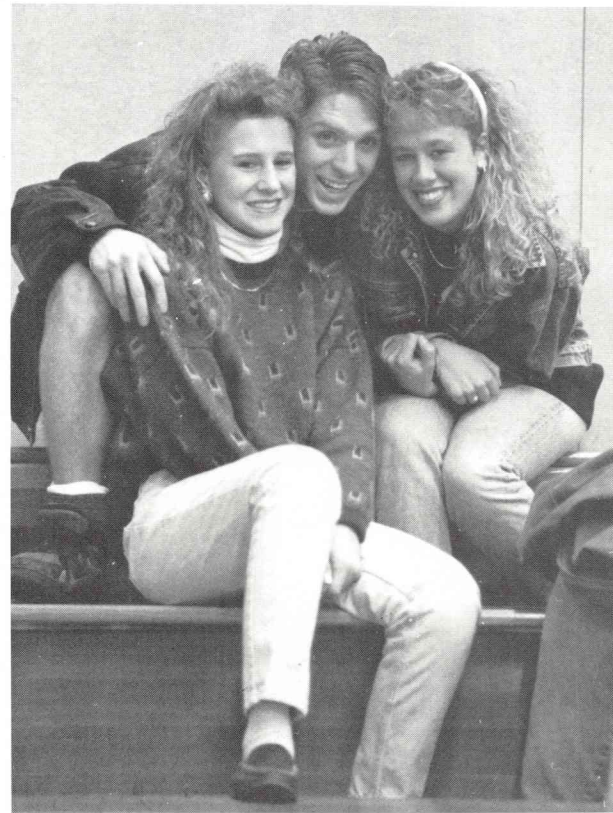

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift;
Shun not the struggle — face it; 'tis God's gift.

Be Strong!

Say not, “The days are evil. Who's to blame?”
And fold the hands and acquiesce — oh shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be Strong!

It matters not how deep intrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day how long;
Faint not — fight on! To-morrow comes the song.
